AND EAST HAVEN NEWS

There is no sense in advertising something that nobody wants. A successful shopkeeper advertises that which the buying public wants, or needs to buy.

A town without a group of people earnestly working to promote its progress is like a fine automobile which has run out of gasoline.

VLO. XV—NO. 21

Branford, Connecticut, Thursday, September 10, 1942

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Total School Enrollment Shows Slight Decrease From Previous Year

Junior And Senior High Schools Drop 56—Total Registration 1460 As Compared With 1528 In September Of Last Year—No Serious Overcrowding.

In view of the times with industry taking young men and women Branford Schools opened splendidly yesterday in spite of the rain which cast gloom over boys and girls determined to commence the year freshly starched and pressed.

Elementary schools housed almost the identical number of pupils as previously with but a very slight dropping off over town.

Junior and Senior schools have 56 fewer students than last September due to an increasing number going into industry even with 30 new enrollees.

Last year 1528 boys and girls registered as compared with 1460 this week.

Considering the community as a whole there is no overcrowding. In some class rooms it is known that pupils, here perhaps for the summer, will transfer to other cities or towns. Forty pupils to a teacher appears to be an accepted teacher load in Branford.

In spite of an unusually large number of teacher resignations due to conditions induced by the war and in spite of the war-induced scarcity of teachers seeking employment, the Branford schools opened with a fully qualified teacher in charge of every class.

During the summer extensive repairs have been made in some of the schools. The high school boiler has been re-lubed. Short Beach School and Harrison Ave. School have been painted both inside and out. New shades have been purchased to replace worn out shades in all schools. All schools have undergone the usually thorough job of summer cleaning.

Ashley Donates To Ambulance

Presentation ceremonies took place yesterday afternoon at the Ashley Shirt Co. when Mr. Aldo Cursi, manager of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, and Mr. John Lauria, business agent presented a check for $234 to the Branford Ambulance Fund as a contribution from all employees of the shop.

Frank Kinney accepted the check and explained the work and objects of the committee. Mrs. Michael Carpinella, chairman distributed ambulance tags to the employees and Frank Clancy drove the newly acquired ambulance to the door for inspection.

Ashley Shirt members on the Amalgamated committee were Walter Suchecki, Stasia Brada, Genevieve Zurasky, Lillian Scironi, Al Trapaceo, Babe Rank and Mario Maurelli.

Mr. Cursi thanked the factory owners for making the donation possible.

Other individuals or groups who have recently made contributions are: Dr. Arthur S. McQueen, Frank S. Bradley, Willys Beach, Irwin Morton, and Central Garage, Mrs. Kenneth Noble; $79.20, Short Beach food sale, Italian Roma Society, $50.

RED CROSS GIVES OUT CERTIFICATES

The following have received certificates for having completed the Red Cross water safety course at Branford Point during the Summer months: beginners: Mary Jane Macelano, Ruth Johnson, Patricia Dolan, Mary Boyle, Richard Brewer, William Palmer, Joseph Bodner, Clement Bodner, Dick Dolan, Herbert Thayer, Donald Thayer and Frances Peveti; intermediates: Priscilla Delbert, Barbara and Thomas Pepe, Donald and Charles Gell Janet Bartholomew, Verabelle Crisman and Maury McClees.

First Patient Calls For Ride In Ambulance

Branford's recently acquired ambulance was used for the first time Monday when Eugene M. Morrison of 69 West Main Street, who has been ill for some weeks, was removed to a convalescent home in West Haven.

The ambulance is not yet, however, available for public call unless ample time is allowed for arrangements, and its use on all occasions must be requested by a physician.

Those who still plan to donate are asked to do so as soon as possible, as it is hoped to wind up the entire transaction before the end of this month. In addition to the cost of the vehicle itself a considerable sum must be spent for equipment, chains, including two stretchers, splints for fractures, suitable instruments for performing minor operations, and apparatus for giving intravenous injections.

Among those working on the active committee are, Mrs. Michael Carpinella, Mrs. Wilfred T. Nott, Mrs. Alice T. Peterson, Frank Kinney, William Meffert, Frank Clancy, Louis Ritzinger, Rev. Frederic Murray, Dr. Philip Gerlach, Dr. Michael Carpinella, Mrs. Raymond Balow, Alfred Skolons, Mrs. Roland Van Sands, Mrs. Arthur E. Alling, Thomas Sudac.

Members Speak At Garden Club

The regular meeting of the Branford Garden Club was held Friday, at 2:45 in the Short Beach chapel.

The Salute to the Flag was led by Miss Madolin R. Zacher and a poem read by Mrs. F. T. Catlin.

Mrs. Arthur Alling, treasurer, gave a detailed report of the ambulance fund card party. The balance to date is $315.41. A nominating committee composed of Mrs. M. D. Stanley, Mrs. A. E. Hammer, Mrs. John H. Birch, Mrs. C. E. Smith and Mrs. R. E. Beers was appointed. Two new members were accepted. Mrs. Winchester Bennett and Miss Olive Pratt.

Mrs. Donald Sawtelle, Chairman of the program committee, introduced the speakers: Mrs. Frank Stone, Mrs. Birch and Miss Zacher.

Mrs. Stone spoke of neglected families in reference to plants. She requested all members who wished to join the study group to send in their names to her.

Mrs. Birch took for her subject, "Conservation" in which she spoke of conservation to simplify life in this time of crisis. She described the picture of General Douglas MacArthur which had been made of plants in the Boston public garden.

Miss Zacher illustrated her talk with many beautiful branches of evergreen, including pines, spruces hemlocks, cyprus, junipers and the pine which is the most practical and most popular.

Refreshments were served by Short Beach members who were hostesses.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS

Cornelius T. Driscoll, chairman of the Democratic Town Committee has given notice that a Democratic Caucus will be held in the town hall Saturday, Sept. 12 at 8 o'clock for the purpose of nominating candidates for the various town officers to be elected at the annual town election, October 5.

North Branford Will Have New Public Library

Gift Is Happy Solution To Vexing Problem—Construction To Commence At Once

Judge Ellsworth B. Foot, town counsel of North Branford, announced construction will start immediately on a new library which will be built on the town Green as a memorial to Rev. Charles Atwater, pastor of the local Congregational church from 1809 to 1825. The donor is his grandson, James C. Atwater of Springfield, Mass.

Priority ratings have been obtained by the contractor, the Patterson Construction Co. of New Haven, and the building will be completed within 90 days. The cost of the structure was unannounced.

The construction of the building will begin at once. The structure measures twenty-five feet by forty feet, having a basement, first floor, and an attic space. The Reading Room is of course located on the first floor. Walls and ceiling will be plastered; and provision for books is made by ample shelving having an initial capacity of five thousand three hundred volumes on the one floor alone. There is also a vestibule, stair hall, closet space, and space allocation for the Librarian.

A Lecture Hall, sixteen feet by twenty-six feet in length, and directly accessible from the exterior, will be located in the basement, am-

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD ON MONDAY

The death of James Galligan of 338 Center Street, West Haven, occurred in the hospital of St. Raphael, in his 85th year. He was a former resident of New London and Branford leaving here about 40 years ago. Since that time he had resided in West Haven and for a number years with his niece, Mrs. John Regan of 338 Center Street. His late wife was the former Miss Margaret Regan of East Main St.

The funeral was held from his late residence Monday morning at 8:30 with requiem high mass in St. Lawrence Church at 9. The burial was in St. Agnes Cemetery.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS

Notice has been given of a Republican caucus to be held Friday evening, Sept. 11, at 8 o'clock for the purpose of nominating candidates for the various town officers to be elected for the annual town election, October 5.

WHAT CAN I DO?

Several hundred citizens' handbooks for war have been obtained by the local Civilian Defense office and may be had for the asking. Entitled "What Can I Do" the book has 50 pages of useful information on civilian defense matters.

Plan To Erect An Honor Roll

So much interest has been shown in Short Beach in purchasing a banner or other suitable emblem to honor the boys in service that a sizeable amount of money has been deposited with Harry Tucker at the Waiting Station.

Plans are being made to construct a suitable honor roll and a committee will be chosen soon to make detailed arrangements.

Meanwhile anyone wishing to contribute may do so at the Waiting Station.

Emergency regulations make it impossible to secure a list of men in service from official lists so parents, friends and relatives in the Short Beach area who want names on the honor roll are asked to notify Mr. Tucker of their correct names and rank.

Chapter Needs Station Wagon

Anything you can do to make our Soldier's Journey easier should be a pleasure.

If you want some of this pleasure; if you want to feel that you are directly helping fighting men; if you want to really give some real needed help to your own boys; here is your opportunity.

One month ago today Branford Branch, Red Cross started to raise funds to buy and equip an Emergency Supply Wagon.

This wagon is a vital necessity in transporting material that will be made into bandages, compresses, swabs, and other medical aids, for American soldiers, who gave up everything to fight for us.

Many of these articles, made by Red Cross women workers here in Branford, may be the means of saving the lives of Branford Soldiers.

Without transportation we cannot move articles. Without the finished goods our soldiers will suffer.

These fighting men are suffering enough already, just so we at home will be spared.

To buy and equip the Emergency Supply Wagon, that will keep these supplies moving to the battlefields, Branford's Red Cross needed $51500.

Less than one-half of this sum has been raised; so, you see, there is a long journey ahead.

It's a long way to go; but it can be a pleasant trip if folks at home will go along.

When you realize that your "folding money" will be folded into bandages of comfort for the fellows who are fighting for freedom, it is easy to see how simple it is, to share in pleasure that comes, when we help those who are helping us.

Your contribution to this "Supply Line of Comfort" will be very welcome.

You may send or give donations to Chas N. Baxter, or any Red Cross member.

Clarence Kimball Funeral Today

Clarence Frederick Kimball of 29 Bradley Avenue died Monday night at 8:45 in New Haven Hospital where he was admitted Friday night. He was 58 year of age and was born in Brattleboro, Vt., coming to this town 22 years ago. For a great many years he had been associated with several automobile agencies in New Haven and more recently was a government inspector for High Standard.

He was a member of Widow's Son Lodge, No. 66, A. F. & A. M. and Trinity Church. Mr Kimball is survived by his widow, Lillian Welch, one son, Corporal Frederick V. Kimball of Fort McCellan, Ala., who arrived Tuesday night, his father, Frederick S. Kimball, and one brother, Harry Kimball of Ontario, Cal., three sisters, Mrs. Fred Higgins of Long Beach, Cal., Mrs. Leslie Wells of Venice, Ca., and Mrs. Seth Ovit of Ontario, Cal.

The funeral is held this afternoon at 2 P. M. with services in the funeral home of Norman V. Lamb of Montwese Street. The Rev. Frederic R. Murray, rector of Trinity Church, will officiate and the burial will be in Center Cemetery.

Station Wagon And Ambulance Supply Needs

Considerable confusion still exists in regard to the ambulance, recently purchased by popular subscription and presented to and accepted by the town, and the emergency station wagon purchased by donations given for the purpose to the local chapter of the Red Cross.

Each is urgently needed and each serves an entirely different purpose. The ambulance will be at the service of Branford residents for conveying accident or illness cases to and from hospitals and thus avoiding what could easily prove a fatal delay while waiting for city accommodations.

The station wagon will be used for the transportation of supplies between New Haven and Branford and for transportation of workers to units; for making contacts between men in the service and their families, for the every day demands connected with the town welfare work, for transporting casualties, feeding those engaged in defense or disaster work. The wagon will be owned by the Branford Branch of the Red Cross.

There should be no confusion on the part of those subscribing. Both causes are equally worth the 100 per cent support of Branford citizens who, sooner or later, are likely to have personal need for one or both of the services and to know a real gratitude for those who had sufficient initiative to promote them.

Aquatic Meet Brings Crowd

Interest in the Short Beach aquatic meet held Monday was evident in the crowd which turned out to witness the performance of the largest number of contestants ever to be entered in the various events. Winners were as follows:

Swimming boys—John Toohey, Richard Haury, Dick Bodine, Charles Parson; girls—Mary Beausoleil, Prudy Welsh, Jeanette Thompson, Leah White. Most thrilling water event was the handicap race in which Robert Shumacher came in first, Richard Haury, second, and John Toohey, third.

Running, boys—Frank Jurczyk, John Toohey, Charles Kraus, Frederick Hills; girls—Irene Keeler, Mary Toohey, Mary Bernard. The one mile race, Short Beach center to Grapple Bay, and back, was won by Frank Jurczyk, first; Bert Barker, second, and Henry Fox, third.

Women's tennis matches were won by Barbara Van Sands and Paity White. In the baseball game, the single men won over the married men by a close margin, 8 to 7.

The meet was sponsored by the Short Beach A. A. Committee in charge were D. W. Owens, Paul Barnett and Charles Beausoleil. Judges of water races were Norman Bowne, Richard Haury and Charles Benditt; of land races, Dr. George James and John Corning; of the ball game, William H. May and James L. White. Miss Joan Pritchard was checker, Mr. Bowne announcer and Mr. Owens, starter.

REPORT FOR AUGUST GIVEN BY RED CROSS

The report of the local Red Cross for the month of August is as follows: garments, 289; knitted articles, 49; gauze dressings 13,470. The number of gauze dressings represents the largest quota yet asked for and was made possible by the additional workers in the Short Beach and Stony Creek units. The falling off in the number of knitted articles is owing to the extreme difficulty of securing yarn.

GOVERNMENT JOBS

Postmaster Driscoll is in receipt of a letter from William A. Foley, District Manager of the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Boston, Mass., in regard to present United States Government employment opportunities. Further information may be obtained at the post office.

J. Edwin Brainard Dies In New Haven Hospital; Former State Leader

At Time of Death, Was Chairman of Board of Police Commissioners—Was Former Lieutenant-Governor—Always Interested In Good Roads—Born in Meriden.

Good Highways Hobby Dearest To Brainard

During the useful life of J. Edwin Brainard he was active in many duties but the hobby nearest his heart was good roads.

When he lived in Meriden he was treasurer of the Wheel Club, later becoming its president. There he embarked upon a crusade for the good road movement which resulted in a formation of Connecticut cyclists of which he was president. The organization grew larger and became a political body responsible for the first rubber tire laws ever put on Connecticut statutes.

Mr. Brainard headed the commission for Connecticut's first good roads. Largely by his interest the first cyclists path in New England was established running from Wallingford to North Haven.

General interest was aroused in a state movement to improve the highway conditions in Connecticut. Elected alderman in Meriden in 1897 as the Wheelsman candidate he became a member of the city council. At a later date he was superintendent of streets, serving three years, resigning to go into business with the Wales Lines Co. representing the company's cement interest.

On retirement as superintendent of streets he was presented with a testimonial by the Board of Public Workers of the city as "the best superintendent of streets Meriden ever had."

Mr. Brainard's interest in good roads was carried to Hartford where he was placed on the committee of roads, rivers and bridges.

Air Raid Test Is Considered Worth While

Every air raid warden zone experienced some slight difficulty to be later ironed out as a result of Tuesday evening's surprise alarm.

Most of the trouble, as was suspected, was in finding homes and porch lights left on; and the owners away. In two instances there was poor cooperation and it was necessary to exert pressure.

As a whole, reports Chief Air Raid Warden R. Halstead Mills, the alarm was a success and a surprise.

Confusion resulted when two siren blasts mobilized firemen. In many sections of town, residents, anticipating a test extinguished lights but again turned them on when the actual alarm was given.

The report center was efficiently manned. At nine o'clock the first green flash was given, and the second followed 20 minutes later with the public notified at the series of blasts and factory whistles on green three at 9:30. All clear was given at ten o'clock.

NEGRO BARITONE TO SING

Rev. Clement of St. Stephens Church, Rogers Street, announces that William T. Henderson, prominently known gospel singer of the Southern and Mid-western states will give a song recital in the local Zion Church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Henderson now resides in New Haven and is a singer of unusual ability, inspiring listeners to find God through his songs. The young gospel singer has an unusual way of delivering a sermon through songs. He will be giving hope and courage, says the Rev. Clement, in these days of darkness.

UNBUNG
Interesting as its work is the Stony Creek Flotilla has received little publicity.

Commander Howard B. Resnick and his U. S. Coast Guard Auxiliary have been busy guarding our coast line all summer.

Members learn signaling, watch for fires and sabotage and a dozen and one things.

During the summer when 25 or more suitable crafts were available the Flotilla asked no favors but intensive preparations are now being made for a winter program. Physically fit men are able to patrol Branford shores continuously.

It was discouraging last week when their leaders suggested that they should be asked for financial assistance, to be told the law didn't cover such matters.

To our knowledge Branford people have never failed to give consideration to any worthy cause. There is no reason to doubt that the Flotilla will flourish.

Money can't grow on trees but it will somehow find its way to the Flotilla.

IN ONE EAR
A Nazi diar in a book recently brought to attention scoffed at Americans for wasting energy thinking. How silly said he for a million people to all figure the answers. In his country, he boasted that was not so. In Germany a man thought for the people and all they had to do was accept the solution.

Far be it from us to accept such a thought even for a minute.
In this emergency however it appears that some of our thinking must be done for us. We must accept some commands and orders instantly and without question.

As it happened there were no serious results from the town's hacking out of the two blasts of the siren Tuesday evening. But if there had been an actual raid it would have resulted in something more than a gin-rummy party if many lights were turned on instead of off upon the air raid alarm.

Two blasts for years has indicated a brush fire. Firemen knew it had been changed to mobilization.

True it is that when in doubt blackout but no indication was ever made that a long series of blasts was an all clear.

May we never lose our right to reason but we must learn in these difficult days to accept orders.

To conserve national supplies of alloying elements, scrap dealers carefully segregate alloy steel scrap from ordinary scrap.

TEEN-AGE

We are sorry to learn that Theodore H. Pitt, Jr., publisher of the Hamden Bi-Weekly Star will discontinue his publication with next week's issue.

In a small way, in a small town, Pitt has made a name for himself as a teen-age publisher and editor.

That he took the Star seriously was evident by his regular attendance at meetings of the Connecticut Editorial Association.

The occasional privilege it has been our copies to read here a credit to the Hamden High School lad.

His office, so he once told us was the breakfast nook in the kitchen where he gathered, edited and mimeographed copy.

It wouldn't surprise us one mite if, his education finished, he again took over the family breakfast nook.

Pitt was 11 years old when, in January, 1938, he became "Sports Editor" of a paper called by the "Weekly News", put out by four other boys and himself. This was later changed to the "Whitneyville News" and then to its present name in May, 1938, when Pitt took entire charge of the publication.

Next May would have been the fifth anniversary of the Star, but because Pitt is otherwise engaged in summer patrol work since the hosting season started and has done considerable work in assisting and informing boat owners and shore residents on wartime coastal restrictions.

THE HEAVY HAND OF TYRANNY

STUDENT MUSICIAN

PATRIOTS BOTH

The story of the two-man company that recently received a large flag poster from the War Production Board, "in recognition of the example the entire working force of your plant is setting for the rest of the nation," should be an inspiration to every man and woman engaged in war production.

Before the war Jake Sparling, aged 60 years, made pulleys and repaired machinery in a small shop in Bay City, Michigan. Now, he and his "staff" are making steel flanges for wooden pipes in large war plants.

These two men, Jake and Percy Fogelberger, now 79 years old, have been working fifteen hours a day, seven days a week, since war was declared—and in that time made more than eighteen thousand flanges.

Jake and the "old gen" are typical of the true spirit of American industry today—the "do or die" spirit evident in all patriotic Americans that says, "It shall be done." They are doing a job that they know has to be done and are putting everything they have into it.
The nation salutes Jake Sparling and Percy Fogelberger—patriots both.

THE PATENT MYTH

Widespread suppression of useful inventions has been described as "one of the most persistent myths in the folklore of technology," in "Science and Invention," a booklet of questions and answers on patents, the war, and industrial progress.

Edison's electric lamp had to await the development of economical methods of generating current before being put on the market—but that could not be described as suppression of the invention.

According to the booklet, "Thomas Edison, when asked about this subject once at a Congressional hearing on patents, said:
'I have heard and read numerous statements that many corporations buy valuable inventions to suppress them, but no one cites specific cases, I myself do not know of a single case.'

At the recent convention of the American Bar Association, Roy C. Hackley, Jr., chairman of the patent, trade mark, and copyright law section, presented a program to the house of delegates which he contended would "end the civil war on patents and help the country to remain on the industrial alert."

"The Senate Patents Committee hearing conducted by Senator Bone has shown no evidence of anything wrong with invention or patent laws," Mr. Hackley said. "If there have been abusive uses of patents, it has been more because of failure of the antitrust division of the Department of Justice to enforce the laws on the books than because of lack of legislation."

THOSE WHO DON'T PAY

Several facts remain unchanged throughout all the income and sales tax debates. The present program is inadequate for the job it is intended to do. Present sources have been taxed to the limit. Millions of people who are making more money than they had ever made in their lives are not reached at all by the present tax program.

"In 1940," says The New York Times, "fewer than 4,000,000 persons paid Federal income taxes. In 1941 the figure was lifted to 7,400,000; and this year, according to Treasury estimates, about 13, 000,000 were expected to make taxable returns. The new tax bill will still further raise the number making taxable returns, possibly to as many as 20,000,000; but of this large number the vast majority will pay only very small amounts."

WASHINGTON
SNAPSHOTS

By JAMES PRESTON

OFF the Government news reel comes the comforting word that certain wavering policies are being stream-lined for quick, decisive action. From now on the WPB term "essential civilian needs" is out.
Emphasis on war production boils down to a "catch as catch can" basis and the most important thing is to get on with it. Equally hard-boiled is the Selective Service assertion that "Every man, physically fit, between 20 and 40 will be under arms within two years." The term "essential consumption" is dropped from General Her-sey's lexicon. These are merely examples of what is being done here to gear our sprawling, care-free, pleasure-loving democracy for its fight for the things we cherish. Mistakes will be made. Blunders will be committed. But out of the smoke should come direct directives, quick executions, and the results that America, unafraid, has prayed for.

FROM now on WPB takes over priority control from the Army, Navy, and Maritime Commission.
On this basis the piece of the allocating critical materials which will give WPB complete control over producing, processing, and distributing of all materials from "ore to arms."

The draft policy of General Henderson leaves little for debate.
Employers are advised to prepare to lose every able-bodied man, 20 to 45, within two years and start training and retraining personnel now, as it is only a matter of weeks before a general reclassification of deferred classes will start. Essentially of course it replaces the draft board. The General believes that, if a bomber pilot can be trained in eight months, war worker substitutes can replace him in less than a year. Women appear to be the most likely new soldiers of production.

THEir fight over wages and control continues. President Roosevelt seeks agreement among his supporters on the Labor Day program to come. On one side are the labor unions, led by Green, and some key New Dealers who while demanding a low ceiling on farm prices refuse any type of control in the hands of the farmer.

On the other side are Justice Rosenman, OPA Henderson, and others who favor a Cost-of-Living Board to review wage increases and to regulate the sale of Government-owned farm commodities and subsidies to food processors. This COL Board would have the power to regulate decisions and could provide tighter wage control—short of absolute freezing—than the 15 percent formula. The President will seek to have the Murray-Green faction accept the Rosenman plan this Thursday. Whatever plan is agreed upon will be instituted by Executive order.

There is no time for Congressional debate now.

THE President still wants the $25,000 ceiling on incomes, regarded here as a gesture toward placating farmers and labor through a common sacrifice program.

MRS. SCRAPPY SAYS

Ugels Sam is asking us girls to take on K.P. duty for the duration.
He says don't throw away a single drop of used cooking fat. When we do, we are practically throwing away gunpowder. For waste fats make glycerine. And glycerine makes explosives. And here are the K.P. instructions: Strain used cooking fat through a kitchen sieve into a clean, wide-mouthed can, and when you have collected a pound or more, take them to your nearest war plant. He will pay you the established price for fats and send them on their way to the war. Remember ten pounds of saved fat makes a pound of glycerine. All of us want to do something concrete to help our country. If we find that thing right in our own kitchen—well, so much the better!

So many boys of my age are signing up, giving their pledge to do or die for our Country's sake and they will too, and our best best war flag to serve and make this land of Liberty safe for their loved ones left behind to keep the home fires burning, and carry on where they left off to answer our Country's call to arms.

Let us back them up and do all that we can to aid them in their gallant fight for Victory.

So many boys of my age are

Wholesale robbery is in this civilized period of the world's history as rampant as during ages before the Christian era.

Both the United States and England have in the hundred years or more sent missionaries to Japan to try to Christianize the Japs; have admitted to our colleges; have taught them our sciences, arts and mechanics. They proved apt and industrious scholars, they imitated our goods, undersold in our own markets—and now consider themselves smarter than their white teachers—and I guess they are.

They have subverted the useful inventions of most recent times to the robbery and murder of their Asianic kin and neighbors. How did they do it? They have taught us what to do. To take their lands for Japanese occupancy and further and further aggression, the building up of a new world order.

"Tell the boys... a little hold-up"
"You just wouldn't believe a thing like this could happen here," I told John when he came home last night.
"Here is a war plant closed down because of a dispute between two unions. Think of it, when every minute is precious, those men stop work just because the unions couldn't agree on which one should have a contract with grocery clerks. And because they couldn't agree, the wholehouse was tied up, and of course that tied up the retail stores. Isn't it ridiculous?"

"Sure it's ridiculous," John said, "because the unions said 'no more strikes after Pearl Harbor,' but they had plenty of them since then. In fact, there were 222 war work stoppages in July alone, and most of these were unauthorized and over the most trivial issues."

"This is the way I feel about it," I told John. "I can't help thinking about all the boys we know right here in our own neighborhood who are out there fighting right now. I wonder how they'd feel if they heard of something like this. I wonder how their friends and relatives over at the new plant were sitting down on the job."

Tomato Crops
Provide Valuable
Food Elements

Consumers should take advantage of foods when they are plentiful supply says the weekly bulletin of the State Department of Health in calling attention to the fact that tomatoes provide valuable elements in the diet. Large supplies now for the market furnish an economical and excellent source of vitamin C.
Unlike other foods tomatoes, when canned or cooked retain their vitamin C, unless the cooking is too prolonged. Tomatoes also contain valuable minerals and are sources of vitamin A and B.

Public supplies of commercially canned tomatoes are expected to be low next winter as the government has contracted for the major part of the 1942 pack, the bulletin points out. For this reason housewives should benefit from present large supplies by canning enough tomatoes to meet the winter needs of the family.

There are innumerable places for canning, lunch or dinner, according to the bulletin. Chilled tomato juice may take the place of the usual morning fruit. At luncheon, a fresh tomato stuffed with cottage cheese, tuna fish, creamed corn or chopped eggs and served on crisp lettuce or other salad greens takes a commanding place as a main dish.

Or tomatoes may be baked or baked in their skins to accompany the main dish at lunch or dinner. A quick snack or light lunch may consist of a slice of tomato covered with a slice of cheese, a half tomato and topped with bacon. This should be heated in the oven or unless the tomato and cheese is melted, serve piping hot.

Although chilled tomato juice is always a good beginning for a meal, on a cold day this may be varied for dinner or luncheon by serving a tomato or cream of tomato soup. Tomatoes broiled, stewed, sliced, raw or in a combination salad with other fresh vegetables may accompany the main dish of meat, fish or eggs.

Necessities of all kinds, including vegetables made from skim milk, are also in good supply at this time.
A high protein food, cheese may replace tomatoes in the place of meat in the daily diet.

How to riddle the enemy with bullets

One way to help riddle the enemy with bullets is to use your telephone less. Do you know why?

A machine gun in action four minutes will use up enough copper to make a mile and a half of telephone wire. There isn't enough copper available to expand the telephone system—and still make the bullets needed to win the war.

Thus your cooperation is urgently needed. Won't you help lighten the load on overcrowded central office equipment and jammed Long Distance lines? Uncle Sam makes these two requests:

- Your LONG DISTANCE calls
On week days don't make long distance calls except those which are related to the war effort or are otherwise urgent during these war-busy hours—9 a. m. to 12 noon... 2 to 5 p. m. ... and 7 to 9 p. m.
- Your LOCAL calls
Impress on all the members of your family the need for them to cut down both the length and the number of local calls.
