OUR SHOPPING CENTER

One cannot fail to be impressed these days with the growth and development which is going on along Main street. We have mentioned from time to time the changes in property ownership, the building of new business establishments and the alterations which are providing for new stores and service establishments. East Haven's Main street has long been a shopping center for the East Shore Communities and there are evidences now that the present post-war development, which is daily gaining momentum, will reach large proportions.

From the Town Green west to the Town Line the development and improvements in the business field move forward. This fall many new places of business have opened, others are now being prepared for opening and still others are advanced beyond the planning stage. The variety of business already here and those soon to be opened points up to a suburban shopping center comparable to the best in the state.

All of this is good for the town. A live business and shopping center means a live and alert community. During the past year a great many residents of East Haven as well as the surrounding areas, including Foxon, the shore, Morris Cove and Fairmount have come to look upon East Haven's Main street as their trading and service center. Without exception our merchants and service people have noted an over-all increase in the volume of their business.

As we enter into the fall and early winter shopping season which leads up to Christmas, the business center will show further attraction for the general public. Readers of the NEWS will find all the news of our Shopping Center in our columns because that is one of our chief aims, the promotion of East Haven as a trading center for this area.

NATIONAL PHARMACY WEEK

November 4-10 has been set aside as National Pharmacy Week in appreciation of the services of pharmacy to the health and well-being of the country. As American citizens we have grown up to appreciate the variety of services rendered by the "Corner Drug Store" although we may little realize the important part that pharmacy, both retail and manufacturing, have rendered in peace and war.

In 1942 with the conquest of the quinine producing areas of the world by the Japanese, retail pharmacists of the country patriotically donated their individual stocks of this drug to our armed forces. On the other hand pharmaceutical manufacturers produced great quantities of atabrine, the synthetic antimalarial, as well they supplied our armed forces with untold quantities of the sulfas, morphine, penicillin, vitamins and other drugs.

Today pharmacy is continuing its aid to the medical profession in the production and distribution of penicillin for civilian use. Research to produce newer and still better drugs for the health of the country is being continued, and the retail pharmacist is ever-ready to serve the physician and citizen in the same honest and friendly manner as always.

We salute the Pharmacist.

ADVERTISING PAYS

We like to hear now and then from our advertisers as to the sort of results they are getting through the NEWS. Those who spend money for advertising often find it difficult to evaluate the returns from the media used. Advertising is like the proverbial arrow shot into the air that falls to earth we know not where. Most advertisers, however, believe that money spent in effective media is money well expended and that it returns many fold.

One of our advertisers in New Haven advertised a certain article in the NEWS the past month that was advertised in no other way. The sales went upward and what interested the merchant most was the fact that an order and a clipping of the advertisement came in from a reader in a distant town. We like to hear reports of this kind. A Main street merchant also told us this week that a small advertisement which appeared recently brought him new customers and he is now planning to carry advertising weekly at least until Christmas.

It has been heartening and encouraging to see our advertising columns grow, even more encouraging when we learn that those who spend their good money for advertising really appreciate the results. A Community weekly, such as the NEWS, is an effective advertising medium, because it's watched for, welcomed, and read in a majority of the homes of this Community.

PAUL H. STEVENS, ESQ.

Whenever the mail brings us a letter with our name on the envelope followed by the abbreviated title "Esq.", as above, we don't like it. And we suspicion there are others like us who feel that whoever addresses us in that manner whether a person, firm or corporation, has something to sell or some "axe to grind." It has always seemed to us to be a silly practice, this using the very empty title "Esquire," and frankly we don't like it. We can see no reason at all for anyone using it unless it is to feed a person's ego, and there are probably some whose vanity is elevated a little by seeing the three foolish little letters following their name. Plain "Mr." or even the bare name itself is plenty good enough.

Use of the title has always intrigued us from the first day many years ago when we received a letter so addressed and in which as we recall it, someone wanted to sell us a correspondence course. Later we took the pains to find out from the encyclopedias what the title meant. The Britannica was explicit. In Merrie England Esquire was the little fellow who attended the Knight and carried his helmet, shield and lance. We did not want to carry anybody's helmet, shield or lance. It was hard enough to carry our own. And the Britannica informed us further that an Esquire is something up the ladder between a gentleman and a Knight. Here again we were satisfied to be merely a Gentleman and no more. The New International was a shade better. It ventured to say that an Esquire was a title given to anyone "who can bear the port, charge and countenance of a gentleman." That was an improvement over the Britannica but not enough to convince us. And when we read further that it is a title given "to any person supposed to be in easy circumstances", we were convinced we would have none of it.

Rangers Win In Final Minutes As Fans Cheer

East Haven Eleven Beats Fair Haven Iroquois With Score Of 13 to 7.

By Frank Igo

Fans, hundreds of them, yelled themselves hoarse Sunday afternoon as the East Haven Rangers trailing 7 to 6 and with only two minutes left to play demonstrated a powerful wind-up with lanky Charlie Finnegan plunging over for the second Ranger tally from the three yard line. It was a wov of a game with the two teams battling for first place in the City-wide American League of the New Haven Park Rec.

Game Highlights

In the first quarter, Phil Sherman, fullback for the Rangers, intercepted a pass and raced 50 yards to cross the goal line standing up, but a clipping penalty nullified the play. Later, in the same quarter, Malinowski skirted right end for another Ranger tally, but once again an offside penalty gave the ball to the Iroquois.

The Iroquois, stopped cold in the first quarter, took to the air in the opening moments of the second quarter. In a series of plays that saw Laurelio tossing to Criscuolo and Laurelio passing to Tulp and finally Tulp passing to Criscuolo, the Iroquois worked the ball to the Ranger 30. Here they attempted to crash the Ranger forward wall and failing to gain, Tulp took the ball on the fourth down, started widd to the left and threw a 35 yard, cross-field touchdown pass to Zampano. This play was one of the highlights of the game. The kick for the extra point was good and the half ended with the score—Iroquois 7, Rangers 0.

The second half saw a Ranger team take the play away from the Iroquois. The Fair Haven boys again tried that splendid passing attack but Ranger interceptions by Owen and Malinowski put an end to the Iroquois aerial game. In the fourth period the Iroquois attempted to kick from their own 30 and Corbett and Proto of the Rangers bobbed around the kick. As the ball bobbed around on the 40, Dinky Ryan, who had played an excellent game for the Rangers, picked it up and ran it to the Iroquois 15 where he was knocked out of bounds. From here Bill Carney on a wide end run crossed the goal line for the first Ranger tally. Sherman try for the extra point was wide and with 4 minutes left in the game the score stood Iroquois 7—Rangers 6.

Tulp took Sherman's kick-off on his own ten and was stopped dead in his tracks by Hibson and Colley. Please turn to page two

Bishop Here Sunday For Confirmation

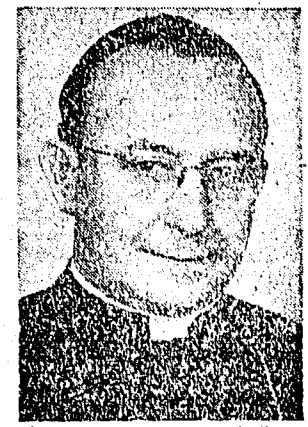

Most Rev. Henry J. O'Brien Will Conduct Rites At St. Vincent de Paul's Church at 11 A.M.

The new Roman Catholic Bishop of the Diocese of Hartford, the Most Rev. Henry J. O'Brien, will come to East Haven Sunday to administer the rite of confirmation at St. Vincent de Paul's church in Taylor avenue.

A class of approximately two hundred boys and girls, who have been receiving weekly religious instruction for a period covering the past five years, will be confirmed at this time. The ceremony is one of the most impressive of church rituals and a very large attendance is expected.

The Bishop will be assisted by his secretary, the Rev. John Hackett, and by the Rev. Father William O'Brien, pastor of St. Vincent de Paul's church, The Rev. Fathers Myers and Buckley of the local parish, and by a Dominican father assigned by the order.

There will be four sponsors, two men and two women, who will be announced by Father O'Brien, as well as other individual sponsors. Members of the confirmation class come from the Taylor avenue church, the old church on Main street, the Momauguh Chapel, and St. Elizabeth's church, Short Beach. This is the first class to be confirmed here in two years.

The winter schedule of masses in the parish is as follows: Taylor avenue church, 6:45, 8 and 10 A.M.; Main street church, 8:30 and 11 A.M. and Momauguh Chapel, 9:30 A.M.

NEW EQUIPMENT IS INSTALLED

A visit to the new plant of the East Haven Cleaners at the rear of 309 Main street reveals the new electrically operated boilers and other equipment in place and ready for operation. Mr. Andrew Concelmo, proprietor, announces that an official opening and public inspection will be held in the near future.

The new Cyclotherm steam generator was shipped here from the works in Oswego, N.Y. to operate the Hueblich Tumblers and the Pantex washers, all finished in battleship gray which were set up some time ago in the recently completed 30 by 45 foot fireproof building. The present establishment of the company will be used in the future for store and office purposes only and for the shoe repairing end of the business.

The new plant is fitted to give a 100 percent three-way sanitary cleaning service and when in full operation will make possible a one-day service. Mr. Concelmo's brother, Dominic, recently discharged from the Army, has rejoined the business and will have charge of the pick up and delivery.

TOWN TOPICS

FROM OUR REPORTERS' NOTEBOOKS

November Arrives.

Armistice program set for Sunday, Nov. 11.

Thanksgiving comes Thursday, Nov. 22, this year.

Looks like there will be plenty of turkeys on hand for festive table but wise housewives will order early. Incidentally we note quite an extensive turkey farm up North High street way.

Chairman Arthur Haesche tells us Community Chest and War Fund Drive locally was big success.

Total was well above quota and contributions are still coming in, he says. Drive went 106 percent over quota, and there was a 20 percent increase in number of contributors.

Special praise goes to High school where pupils, teachers and custodians raised 40 percent of entire town quota. Miss Laura I. O'Connor headed school team.

All volunteer workers did splendid job led by Mrs. Ernest L. Pemberton, Mrs. Ellsworth W. Cowles and Miss O'Connor as team captains.

Dr. Rockwell Harmon Potter of Hartford slated as speaker at November supper meeting of Men's Club of Stone church in Parish House Tuesday, Nov. 13. A fine speaker. Reservations should be made well in advance.

Pequot Tribe has leased present Red Men's Hall in Main street for another year.

Rumors floating around of important real estate transfers shaping up along Main street.

Police were alert all week for over-exuberant Halloween celebrators.

It's going to be a "Victory" Fair this year for the ladies of Christ church. Mrs. Robert D. Schroeder, Sr., is general chairman of the Fair which will be held Friday afternoon and evening, Nov. 10, in the Comrades Peter Molloy and Fred Burdette, whose sons, Richard Molloy and Fred Burdette, former members of the Sons of the American Legion, gave their lives in World War II.

Commander Frank Wells of the Harry R. Bartlett post, American Legion, asks that all members present themselves in uniform at the Thompson avenue club house at 12:30 o'clock Sunday, Nov. 4 to go in a body to West Haven to join in the festivities planned there.

Tickets going rapidly for the big Mistletoe Show to be sponsored by the Rotary club in the High school auditorium Friday evening, Nov. 10. Nice program is being gotten out through liberal support of business and professional people. The show is being put on by the Good Fellowship Club of Short Beach. Watch these columns for full details later.

Dean Texido, the Isaac Walton of East Haven, was Rotary speaker today at luncheon in St. Vincent de Paul's church basement. His subject however is not "Fishing" but rather one more in line with his banking knowledge, "Planning Your Trust Fund."

Birthday greetings to Harold Nash

Albert Cogshall of Main street was recovering from an operation. H. C. Nickerson remained seriously ill at his home in Main street.

East Haven folk were grateful that the Halloween season had been celebrated in an unusually quiet manner.

A reception was held for Rev. and Mrs. H. K. Eversull in the Stone church chapel.

The Order of the Eastern Star enjoyed a masquerade dance.

East Haven went three to one for Harding in the presidential election. The plurality by the Republicans was the biggest in 40 years. S. R. Childsey was elected representative with 667 votes while Edwin Fertman, Democrat received 229 votes. Casting their votes for the first time 315 East Haven women took part in the election.

Mrs. Leland Thompson of Park place was hostess for a silver tea for Princess Chapter.

Year Of Progress For Library

Circulation Figures Start Upward After Several Years of Decline.

According to many commentators 1944-1945 is a year that will go down in history as the end of an old era and the beginning of a new. World events have affected us all as individuals but as far as the library is concerned it was a year just like any other. However, it is my hope that it will prove to be the beginning of a new period in which the library ceases to be the "same old place", as one of the returning veterans expressed it, but becomes one of the liveliest places in town with plenty of new books and something going on all the time.

Circulation for the year was 33,643 (19,403 adult and 14,240 juvenile, including school circulation). This is an increase of 2,608 over last year. After several years of declining circulation it is encouraging to see the figures start upward again.

There were 317 new borrowers and 231 re-registrations during the year bringing the total number of borrowers up to 2,375. Registration, like the circulation, shows a slight increase but remains, on the average, about as it has for several years now.

Book Additions to Library 748 books were added to the library last year but 456 were discarded making a net gain of only 292 and bringing the total stock up

Editor's Note: We are very happy to publish herewith a condensation of the annual report read by Miss Beth Taylor, librarian, to the Board of Directors, of the Hagaman Memorial Library at the annual meeting last week. We hope it will be read by all as it contains much information of interest as well as suggestions for the future.

to 9,388. The goal is 1 1/2 books per capita. If one estimates the population of East Haven as 10,000 we still have quite a way to go. Also, many of these additions are gifts which are extremely useful as replacements and background material but which do not satisfy the demands of the reading public for new and up-to-date books.

We depended on the town truck again last year to deliver our books to outlying schools. We send fifteen books to a classroom of thirty or forty pupils which is not enough to go around. Even so, our own stock is depleted, as we do not have duplicates for school collections, thus depriving those children who come to the central building.

We had just one story hour last year. That was during Book Week when Miss Bernice Hansen volunteered to help us out again. I feel very strongly that a trained children's librarian is needed on our staff who can tell stories regularly, who will be able to make more of a celebration of our Book Festivals and national holidays, and who can help out on the school work.

Sponsor Several Exhibits The library has sponsored several interesting exhibits this year. Dr. John L. Gregory's original water colors were much enjoyed by this community. Miss Jean Hoxie arranged, both upstairs and in the Lecture Hall, examples of school art from primary grades up. This was viewed by more than one hundred persons. Booklets on the symphony orchestra, made by pupils in music study classes, were also on display at the library. Our most recent and most popular exhibit—old pictures of East Haven—was arranged by Miss Dorothy Howard and Mr. Donald Childsey. We were all surprised at the interest shown by youngsters and new residents as well as the "oldtimers." It tied up very well with the school curriculum as East Haven history was a September assignment. People were very generous in loaning pictures. Some have made their loans permanent donations. Other pictures will be reproduced, placed in an album and kept in the library as a

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Urquhart of Hemingway avenue have returned from a visit with their son, Robert, who is a patient in the U. S. Naval Hospital in Balhridge, Md.

From the Boulevards of Paris on Monday to the backwoods of East Haven for a hunting trip Saturday was all in the week-end for Capt. Oscar Jacobson, brother of Capt. Jacobson of Salfonall Parkway. Oscar came home from Paris in 19 hours not counting a nine-hour stop-over at Labrador, leaving Monday and arriving the next day. After a four day visit and a rest he took his gun Saturday and came home with one woodcock.

Several Naval pictures, reproductions of paintings of some of America's great sea defenders were a part of a Navy Day display at the Higman Memorial Library last week.

A new boiler room and storage building of older brick construction is being added to the J. A. Long greenhouses in Dodge avenue.

Fireman First Class James Cristanzen phoned home from San Francisco to his parents Friday on arrival from October. He expects to be home on leave within a month.

Mr. and Mrs. George Whalen of French avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spencer of Saybrook invited to New York Sunday on the occasion of the latter's 35th wedding anniversary.

Sgt. William K. Ryan, son of Mrs. J. J. Ryan of Bradley avenue has received his discharge from the 9th Air Force on points and is now at his home here after extensive service in France and Germany. Staff Sgt. Jack Ryan is now at Governor's Island awaiting discharge.

John Long, Desmond Coyte, Richard Coyte and Miss Corine Coyte were in New York Saturday for the Navy Day exercises.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Tench who have been at Lee's Island for the season have returned to their home in Hemingway avenue.

The regular monthly meeting of the Public Health Nursing Association will be held on Tuesday evening, Nov. 6 in the Town Hall.

Post Office Superintendent John Murphy now reported on the mend after serious illness.

Send your items to THE NEWS early in the week before Tuesday P.M. If possible, Thanks a lot.

A gay Halloween Party was held Saturday night in the garage of the Vergason Greenhouse on the Parkway with Mr. and Mrs. Vergason entertaining.

Lt. John N. Russell Receives Discharge

First Lieut. John N. Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Russell, Sr., of 245 Main street, is home after four years and eight months service in the Pacific and European Theaters. Lieut. Russell, a former member of Co. A, (New Haven Grays), 102nd Regiment, C.M.O., permanent historical record of East Haven's records.

The Community Rooms of the library were not used very extensively this year. Two clubs met here regularly, the Half Hour Reading Club and the Junior Friends of Music. Three other groups met for single meetings, the Friends of Music, the Girl Scout Leaders, and Ora-Y Mothers, the Red Cross conducted one series of Home Nursing Classes in the Lecture Hall and a Regional Meeting of the Visiting Nurse Association was also held.

In this report of last year's activities I would like to mention some of the problems of the future. It is wishful thinking to assume that the income from our endowment is sufficient to maintain the library adequately. It may have been in the past, but as the town grows so must the library grow. The group is not known and work for both private and public funds to increase our income. In this connection I would like to mention the Mary L. Fowler Fund. Mrs. Leon Fowler was interested in books and the library. At the time of her death, a few of her friends thought that as a memorial to her they would like to give money to the library for books. As others heard of it they wished to contribute. Presently the fund is beginning to grow and will be over fifty dollars. Fine editions of books of permanent value have been purchased from the fund. In order to more graciously acknowledge all gifts, we have had a gift book printed which will be placed in gift books that are accessioned. We cannot use all the books that are given to us but we are pleased to accept what is offered.

When it comes to public funds and a start has already been made in this direction, I believe the taxpayers are willing to support any institution which serves them if they can be assured of results. We would like to have bookmobile service to the outlying districts, better service to schools, more copies of popular books and so on. None of these can be accomplished without more money for books and additional staff. We are trying to serve a population of 10,000 people with fifty cents per capita instead of the one dollar and over per capita which is standard. The books we have circulate well, but what we have is inadequate. More demands or allow for extension of our services. A greater awareness of the value of the library as well as its problems is needed by more.

New Little Theatre Group Plans Play

With enthusiasm running high in the newly organized East Haven Little Theatre plans are now going forward to put a play into rehearsal in the near future with the idea of producing it sometime during the winter season. Prospective plays are now being read by the committee appointed recently and when one is selected it will go into rehearsal under the direction of Mrs. Ralph Hurder who has had considerable experience in producing amateur plays.

The Little Theatre group was organized at a meeting held in the Foxon Community Hall, but is now in its scope with all parts of East Haven represented in its growing membership. The group is open to all East Haveners who are interested in theatricals. Already considerable prospective talent has been uncovered in the town.

The place for staging the play has not yet been decided upon. It may be that Foxon Community Hall, which has a well appointed stage may be used for the first effort of the group.

At the meeting last week members of the group discussed the appointment of new officers. Mrs. Joseph Madden was elected as president of the new group and Mrs. Harold Hall was chosen as vice president. The new secretary is Mrs. Miller L. Williams and

Gen. Knox Says

I see by the paper last week that the new road to Monauguin is going to be a reality by next spring. Well, praise be to God so. Every-time somebody takes me for an auto junk down Monauguin way over Coe avenue I feel like I was riding in one of those jaunty carts over the Rocky Road to Dublin. I've heard tell about. Holes, holes and more holes and ruts all the way down to the shore and water runs down mud and water holes that are nothing short of torment. I know many folks who have shied away from Coe avenue and taken to using Henry street and I can't say as I blame them much. So the news that Coe avenue is going to be rebuilt is mighty good news to everybody. Now when they get down to the job of rebuilding the road I hope they will go ahead and do some of the things that were talked about before the war when the job was practically ready to be started. Most important of these changes should be the removal of the trolley tracks and the replacing of the trolley service by buses. There's an improvement that will make for more satisfactory living along the shore section. It will speed up the running of the street cars. Department Store Fifteen Years Old

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis of the East Haven Department store in Main street. We learned this week that it was in the early part of November, 1930, that Mr. Lewis came here from Bridgeport to set up, for the jobber firm of Manasse Brothers of that city, the East Haven Department store. That makes this busy local establishment 15 years old this month.

"But I Thought You Were HIGH-PRICED!"

Because we maintain high standards, persons sometimes assume that our prescriptions are high-priced. On the contrary, repeated tests have shown that it costs no more - often less - to have prescriptions carefully compounded here at this "Reliable Prescription" Pharmacy. You see, we dispense prescriptions. Our large volume results in low overhead - and this advantage is passed on to our patrons. You will quickly see for yourself if you will bring your next prescription here.

Arrangements Underway To Get Two-Way Radio For Police Department

May Be Three Months Before All Requirements Are Met For Town To Install Apparatus—Patrolmen Must Carry Operator's License—F.C.C. To Establish Wave Length.

Steps have been taken to procure a two-way radio for the Police Department, authorized at the last town meeting.

It is expected that will be three months before the set can be put in operation. When a set was decided upon the Eastern Radio League had to be contacted to determine what wave length is available.

When the application is forwarded to the Federal Communications Commission in Washington it must be attached to a copy of the town charter, in our instance, a patent. All this must bear the signature of the first selectman. In Washington after locating Branford's longitude and latitude—a wave length is assigned and a station can be installed.

Then it becomes necessary to secure permission to operate.

Before putting the radio into use members of the police force must be instructed in its use and secure an operator's license.

This is a not difficult test and should be mastered by the local boys without difficulty.

The subject of a radio for this department has been a matter of discussion for many years and has been taken up at all recent annual town meetings. This year it was included in the budget and was struck out by a proposed amendment at the annual meeting. Speakers from the floor spoke in behalf of the instrument and it remained in this year's appropriations.

Forms Export Company Here

L. L. Doolittle, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Lewis Doolittle of Stony Creek arrived in town October 25 after 37 months service in the Navy, 27 of which were spent in the Calcutta, India, area. He was in a branch of naval intelligence instructing Chinese in guerilla warfare. More directly he was attached to the weather supply depot in Calcutta.

While there he saw the need and desire for American manufactured merchandise in anticipation of an industrial boom in India.

Immediately upon arrival in this country he carried out plans formulated in India and has formed the Shore Line Export Co. serving India, Assam, Burma and China.

A friend will handle business in a Calcutta office while Mr. Doolittle will operate from Branford.

Sailors Injured When Car Hits Parked Truck

Five From Submarine Base In Auto Smash Last Night At Evan's Corner—One Remains In Hospital.

Five sailors from the U. S. Submarine Base in New London were injured last night at 8 when the automobile they were in went out of control and rammed into a parked automobile at Evans corner, taking a spin and seriously damaging a pickup owned by Herman Holdtman of Mulberry Road, Guilford, which was parked 22 feet off road.

The sailors were taken to St. Raphael's hospital in New Haven in the town ambulance. E/M 1-c Michael Medich, 23, who police said was the driver of the car, suffered a back injury and incisions to his neck.

M/M 2-c Russell Christenson, 22, escaped without injury; M/M 2-c Carl Conrad, 21, was treated for abrasions to his shoulder and discharged; F1-c Harold Bush, 22, suffered a fractured collarbone and discharged; while F1-c Harry D. Harvey, 28, refused to remain in the hospital.

They were treated here by Dr. Dana Blanchard.

The machine was owned by Maurice B. Rice, 23 Chapel street, New London.

State Policemen Ferguson and officers George and Mullen of the Branford police investigated.

Family Notified That Sgt. Colby Died March 16

The name of another of Branford's fine young men has been added to the war casualty list, that of Sgt. William G. Colby.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde W. Colby, Hotchkiss Grove Road received official notification Monday night of his death, March 16.

Sgt. Colby was graduated from Holyoke, (Mass.) High School, prepared at Worcester Academy and later attended Clark University. When he entered service he was in the employ of the M.I.F. Co. For a period of about 18 months he was a member of the military police escort guard at Camp Chaffey. In October 1944 he was sent overseas eventually to the Belgium Bulge, where he was reported missing in action.

A card was received from him January 11 from a Prisoner of War camp. Since then he has not been heard from.

While in service he married the former Miss Barbara Harvey of Newtonville, Mass.

He was a member of the Allegro Club.

Police Eligible For Fingerprint School Classes

Chief Christian Woehrlie of the Branford Department announced the participation of his department in a Central Fingerprint School which is to start November 1st at the Woodbridge Police Department.

The school was organized by Chief Kenneth Howland of the Woodbridge Police Department with the assistance of the Connecticut FBI Office, and will conclude in December. The course will deal with the taking and classification of fingerprints.

Chief Woehrlie stated that Roger F. Gleason, Special Agent in Charge of the New Haven FBI Office advised that Special Agent Lionel (Jack) Meunier, a well known lecturer on the subject of fingerprinting, will instruct the officers from the Naugatuck Valley as well as other departments of the New Haven County.

Chief Woehrlie stated that Special Agent Meunier was connected with the FBI Identification Division before becoming a Special Agent with that organization. He has lectured on this subject extensively throughout the various police schools and law enforcement conferences in the eastern states.

Another phase of the school will deal with police photography. Chief Woehrlie added that Arthur Bourque, Chief Photographer of the New York FBI Office, and a former head of the Photography Section of the FBI Laboratory will instruct the officers on the use of photography in police work.

The school will hold two sessions a week and is open only to Identification officers and other officers who have been designated by the respective Chiefs to take this course. About thirty officers from various police departments will attend this school.

Board Requests List Of Boats

There has been received from the State Board of Fisheries and Game a list of party boats and row boats available for hire at various points along the Sound. The only Branford listing is that of C. J. Lounsbury, Indian Neck. John J. Woods, Charles R. Bartlett and Eugene M. Baldwin have registered from East Haven.

The Department will appreciate regarding boats and their hire, and additional names and information available bait.

Writers Failed To Give Details On Servicemen

From Washington, D. C. comes this letter:

October 29, 1945
Mrs. Alice T. Peterson, Editor,
Branford Review,
Branford, Conn.
Dear Mrs. Peterson:

I am in receipt of two letters from residents of Branford, one signed "A very disgusted Mother", and the other signed, "A Lonely and Discouraged Wife", both bitterly complaining about the discharge system as it affects them. Neither of these letters bear a signature, and it is therefore impossible for me to do anything constructive about assisting them.

If these people will be good enough to write me, giving me the names of the service man, his army serial number and his present address, I would be happy to try to aid them in every way possible, inasmuch as the circumstances in each instance seem to be worthy of consideration.

Will you please give this publicity in your paper?

Thanking you for your courtesy, and with kind regards, I am
Sincerely yours,
James P. Geelan, M.C.

South Chilian Life Depicted To Rotarians

A film of motion pictures was shown to the Branford Rotary Club Monday at the Old Town Restaurant. The pictures which were shown with the cooperation of the Connecticut State Development Commission dealt with life in South Chile.

The Rotary Clubs of Connecticut are cooperating with the State Development Commission in publicizing life in Latin America for the purpose of stimulating trade, understanding political life, and the general promotion of goodwill between those countries and the United States.

Thirty-six attended the meeting, visiting Rotarians were Karl G. Knabenschuh and C. W. Rikerd of New Haven and Harold Nash and Dr. C. Tyler Holbrook both of East Haven.

FOR WAR FUND

Mrs. George Agnew of East Haven won the electric sewing machine given away by a group of Pine Orchard women for the benefit of the Branford War Fund. About $60 was received.

The machine was owned by the Pine Orchard Red Cross Group, organized in October of 1939 and disbanded with cessation of hostilities. Mrs. Pierpont Tyler was chairman of the group which raised the money.

Vasa Star Lodge meets Friday evening in Svea Hall.

To stimulate a better knowledge of civic affairs in the voters of tomorrow, the district committee of Quinipiac Council, Boy Scouts has arranged for a Civic Day to be held in Branford Saturday, November 10th.

Three parties have been chosen with titles familiar to scouting; Prepared Party, Progressives and Squassan Campaigners. Not more than three members of any one troop are considered eligible for office. Positions will be filled according to Scout rank it being necessary to be a star scout or better to fill the job of First Selectman.

On that Saturday morning the elected scouts will report to the various officers in town to receive instructions of office procedure.

Nominations were made at the last court of honor and elections will be held Monday night at the Community House. Those nominated on the Prepared Party are: for first selection, John Manfolk; second, Bill Corcoran (third highest number of votes will fill the third selectman's office) Chief of Police, John Kennedy; Town Clerk, Roger Hartigan; Board of Assessors Charles Richtell (two highest elected); Tax Collector, Philip Mason; Probate Judge; Bill Swanson; Prosecuting Attorney, Emil Kellenbach.

Squassan Campaigners hope to put into office (for the half-day term) First Selectman, Donald Balou; Second John Corning; Chief of Police, Robert Doebreck; Town Clerk, Arthur Johnson; Board of Assessors, Donald M. McGee; Tax Collector, Blake Lehr Probate Judge, Craig Johnson; Prosecuting Attorney, Charles Hoyt.

And on the third or Progressive slate are: First Selectman, Robert Benham; Second, John Tyler; Chief of Police, Bill Downing; Town Clerk, Alfred Hansen; Tax Collector, Anthony Consola; Probate Judge, Merton Benham; Prosecuting Attorney, Lorin Lehr.

Troops participating are Sea Scouts of S.S.S. Flying Cloud, Sea Scouts of S.S.S. Progress II, three center troops and, Stony Creek, Indian Neck and Short Beach troops.

After affairs close for the day all Branford Scouts are invited to the Yale-Brown game, without charge and some expect to take part in the ceremonies between the halves.

Julia A. Zacher Funeral Friday

Mrs. Julia A. M. Griswold Zacher, widow of Judge Edmund Zacher, who was a well known lawyer in New Haven, a former judge of the Branford Town Court and executive secretary to the late Thomas M. Waller when the latter was governor of Connecticut from 1883 to 1885, died Wednesday morning at her home after a long illness. Her age was 88. Mrs. Zacher was a native of Branford, the daughter of the late Joel and Julia Meeker Griswold. She was a member of Mary Clap Wooster Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and of Trinity Episcopal Church. She leaves a son, Judge Louis B. Zacher, and two daughters, Miss Madolin Russ Zacher and Mrs. Norman D. Brainard of Windsor. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 at the Zacher home. Burial will be at the convenience of the family.

Corcoran-Sundquist Post, No. 83, A. L. wish to thank the townspeople folk for the enthusiastic support which was given their Halloween Dance Tuesday night.
