Cancer Center Will Open; Newspaper Is Praised

The New Haven Cancer Information Center and the State Campaign Office of the Connecticut Cancer Society have opened new offices in 1044 Chapel Street, Dr. Frederick W. Roberts, chairman of the New Haven Cancer Society, announces. The new quarters, which consist of four rooms, will insure strict privacy for persons seeking information.

Information about the symptoms, its significance, and what to do about it is available at the office, which also acts as a reference bureau for the cancer detection centers in St. Raphael's and New Haven Hospitals.

A report by Mrs. Albert Dimond, Counselor, shows that 113 persons have visited the office since its inception last February. Dr. Roberts said cancer would lose its place as the second most prevalent cause of death if facts and common sense were to replace ignorance and laxity in the public attitude.

Here are some of the symptoms:

1. Any persistent lump or thickening, especially in the breast.
2. Any irregular bleeding or discharge from any of the body openings.
3. Any sore that does not heal, particularly about the tongue, mouth or lips.
4. Persistent indigestion.
5. Persistent hoarseness.
6. Sudden changes in the form or growth of a mole or wart.
7. Any change in elimination habits.

In a statement issued recently by James S. Hauck, National Publicity Director of the American Cancer Society, the Branford Review was lauded for its part in making the story of cancer available to the people of this area.

The statement reads: "We must hammer home the knowledge that 30% to 50% of cancer's victims die needlessly. We must educate every man, woman and child that early recognition and prompt effective treatment will save human lives.

"To accomplish this vital job, the American Cancer Society has turned to the newspapers of America as the largest single force in the country for the dissemination of information. The support of your industry will be a tremendous factor in creating a public action that will reduce cancer's appalling death toll.

"Death is costly in every community in terms of wealth, manpower and human emotions. Through education this terrible cost can be brought down. Without the continued aid of the newspapers of America, the battle against this disease would be seriously handicapped. What you have already done has produced visible results; your continued aid is vital to the attainment of our ultimate goal. For us to thank you would be presumptuous. Your return can be measured in the terms of lives saved and in the bettered health of the communities you serve.

Coming Events Are Scheduled By Rotarians

Two events of interest for the Branford Rotary Club are scheduled for the next two months, it was announced recently by Walter H. Palmer, secretary.

A joint outing with the Milford Rotary Club is scheduled for Thursday, August 14 at Phalen's Grove, Milford. Softball and golf are planned for the activities of the afternoon. Supper will consist of clam chowder, fried chicken, corn on the cob, watermelon and drinks. In case of rain, the supper will be served at 6 P. M. at the Masonic Temple. Tickets may be procured from committee members Nick Sharp, Joe Buza or Murray Upton.

The Fall Conclave of Districts 199 and 200 is slated for September 19, 20 and 21 at Wentworth-by-the-sea, Portsmouth, New Hampshire. No business will be transacted and there will be no speeches—just two full days of vacation at one of America's leading resorts, Mr. Palmer announced. Golf, tennis, horseshoes, baseball, bridge, good food and dancing will be available. Attendance is limited to 200 from each district.

Tourney Play Continues At Pine Orchard

The first round of the Taylor Cup Matches at the Pine Orchard Club was completed Sunday with the following matches listed: R. House defeated M. P. Warner, 3 and 1; C. Elwell defeated F. A. Reimers, 2 and 1; J. A. Mason defeated W. A. Drisler, 1 up; H. M. Lang defeated F. V. Bigelow 5 and 4; C. Withington defeated J. W. Planders, default; W. H. Knaut defeated V. DeNezzo, 2 and 1; F. DeNezzo defeated R. Booth, 2 up; R. A. Wheeler defeated J. B. Kirby 2 up. The next round is scheduled for August.

Last Saturday and Sunday in the match play against par with full handicap, the winners were Harrison M. Lang, Charles McDonough and Seth Taft tied with 4 up.

The Ladies tournament, blind six holes using 1/2 handicap, was taken by Mrs. J. B. Kirby. Last week's Kicker tourney was won by Mrs. Nelson Lambert. In the Hackers event between the red and blue teams, the score now stands Blue—18, Red—9.

Next week, August 2 through 17, the Pro Trophy Tournament begins. This is 54 hole play with full handicap.

After the demonstration plots have been set up in public places such as along roadsides, in parks and around school houses, many 4-H club members will attempt to kill the ivy around their homes, lots, and gardens.

4-H CLUBS JOIN TO ELIMINATE POISON IVY

How poison ivy can be killed is being demonstrated by 50 4-H clubs in as many communities throughout Connecticut in an intensive campaign to eliminate this health hazard. Spraying has been done in all areas so that first results are now visible.

The successful effort of the Storrs 4-H committee to eliminate poison ivy at Mansfield Four Corners in 1946 pointed the way to the expanded program this year. Cherry Hill 4-H Club and the Little Nine 4-H Club of Branford and the Handy Helpers of North Branford took part in the program.

A manufacturer of an ammonium sulfamate product, which is death to the weed, provided the material that made the current demonstration possible. Small areas up to about 600 square feet that are badly infested with ivy were sprayed by local clubs and signs were posted to indicate that they are demonstration plots.

Thousands of boys and girls and many adults are afflicted with ivy poisoning each year, according to A. J. Brundage, state club leader with the Agricultural Extension Service, University of Connecticut. This is not just a project for 4-H club members, Brundage adds, but a worthwhile one for any community organization. The State Highway Department has indicated that it will work with any communities that want to cooperate in controlling poison ivy, to the extent that materials and manpower are available.

VETERAN NEWS

Latest news of interest to Connecticut veterans—

A total of 69,511 Connecticut veterans of World War II have filed claims for compensation to date, according to Harry T. Wood, manager of the Hartford Regional Office of the Veterans Administration.

Of this total, 24,023 are now receiving monthly compensation checks totalling approximately $947,899.

In addition to those World War II veterans receiving compensation, 5970 World War I veterans in this state are receiving $355,072 in monthly compensation and pension checks.

Wood emphasized that there is no time limit on filing claims for compensation, and that veterans wishing to file claims may do so at their nearest VA office.

Once a World War II veteran has used up the maximum amount of VA guaranty in securing a GI loan for real estate or business purposes, the guaranty is not available to him a second time, according to Veterans Administration officials.

It was pointed out, however, that if the veteran does not use the maximum amount of VA guaranty in securing a loan, the remaining percentage of guaranty may be applied to another loan.

Captain of Industry

Butch wants a bicycle. Lots of lawn and lemonade and baby-sitting lie between Butch and that bike, but we're betting on the boy. He has energy, vision, and our national habit of working hard for what he wants. He's American business—in miniature.

There are many names for Butch's philosophy. You can call it Free Enterprise, Opportunity, Democracy, or Capitalism, if you want.

But, whatever the name, America owes it much. For our most valuable natural resource lies in the ambition and initiative of Americans like Butch.

As great publications have grown from the dreams of young men with old hand-presses—the electric industry had small beginnings, too. A few men with vision strung the first short lines. People with faith risked their savings. Better and better service, at lower and lower cost, created more and more jobs—and carried the benefits of electric living to more and more people.

Free enterprise—and hard work—will bring Butch and his bike together. They are what built America and the American way of life. No nation on earth has found a satisfactory substitute for that combination.
