TOWN TOPICS

This week is the big one for the Legionnaires what with the State Convention down the road apiece in New Haven Saturday. And speaking of parades, Bradford Manor will sponsor one for us right through the center of town Saturday a week when they play host to the Fire and Drum Corps from the four corners of Connecticut and elsewhere.

Parades remind us of uniforms which brings to mind the display of military might. Foxon residents were witness to Saturday. More than 250 National Guardsmen from the Elm City to Cape Cod for training conveyed along Route 80. In fact there was sort of a changing of the guard at Foxon where the State Police assumed escort duty from New Haven's finest.

Speaking of the latter and the possibility that they will blossom out in Pith helmets, is headgear of that sort in store for the local gardener?

On the Town Hall beat we see that Emma Tucker's vacation is over and she's back to her staff duties. Down Main Street a bit further a temporary vacancy occurred due to postal clerk, ohn Camp's yearly vacation.

Silver Sands breaks into the headlines as summer vacation spot noted that Arthur Massolo, noted anti-Fascist editor for New York Italian-language publications, and his sons are there. Arthur, Jr., is with the New York Post, is with the New York Post Authority as public relations expert.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Rolfs and children Eric and Nancy of 51 Frank Street are visiting Mrs. Rolfs' sister in Hattiesburg, Miss., for two weeks.

Gordon Grant of Elm Street celebrated his seventh birthday last Thursday with a lawn party. His mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. John Grant, won a prize at the recent old car show in Milford when they drove a 1902 Ford. It belongs to Mrs. Grant's brother in Stamford.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Gunnip and family of Wilmington, Delaware, are enjoying a three week visit with Mrs. Gunnip's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Lyons of 98 Frank Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Sarason of Sidney Street were weekend guests of their Sidney Street neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. John Kaiser at Kaiser cottage at Lake Zoar. Mr. and Mrs. William F. Lee, also of Sidney Street were guests of the Kaisers.

Judge and Mrs. George V. Cavanaugh of Indiana have been guests of John Cavanaugh and family recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Griffiths and daughter of Forbes Place are spending the month of July at the Guilford Lakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Goodwin have returned from a vacation trip through New York State. En route they visited Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Blakeman at their Summer place.

Joan Tyrrell, niece of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Carpenter of Hall Street, Morris Cove, celebrates her thirteenth birthday today at a party given for her by her aunt and uncle. Many East Havenites were there to help Joan celebrate.

Al Smith of Ardmore Street, Morris Cove, has returned from a three weeks vacation in Maine to resume his duties as treasurer of the Arena.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Munro Andrews are vacationing at Lake Annabesacook, Winthrop, Maine.

JOHN G. CONFREY DIES; FORMER LAWYER HERE

John G. Confrey, for 15 years a practicing attorney in East Haven died Tuesday evening at the Rock Hill Veterans' Hospital after a long illness at the age of 55. A resident of Norwich, he was director of the Connecticut State Employment Service.

He was the husband of Gertrude Doolittle Confrey. Mr. Confrey was born in New Haven February 22, 1894, the son of the late Daniel and Maria Lenihan Confrey. The oldest of five children, he was educated in the public schools of New Haven, Hillhouse High School and Fordham University and law school in New York City. He served in the Army during World War I.

He was admitted to the Connecticut bar in 1920 and practiced law in New Haven and East Haven before he became associated with the Connecticut State Employment Service in October, 1938.

He belonged to the Veterans Association of the Connecticut National Guard, was a former state president of the Connecticut Amateur Athletic Union and a captain of the Sarsfield Guard, 102d Regiment, New Haven.

HATFIELDS AWAY IN AUGUST

During the latter part of August, Rev. and Mrs. Duane Hatfield of 583 Thompson Avenue will be away on vacation. Rev. William G. Bowers, former pastor of the Old Stone Church, will fill the pulpit on Sunday, August 14.

On the following two Sundays, August 21 and 28, Rev. Robert Bowers will preach. Rev. Bowers is studying to be a medical missionary to the Belgian Congo.

Bradford Manor's State Field Day Features Parade

Chairman Scharf Sents Out 150 Invitations To Copn. And Other Drum Corps For Aug. 6 Competition

A street parade through downtown East Haven on Saturday, August 6, will be a feature of the State Field Day which the Bradford Manor Drum Corps is sponsoring. According to Herman Scharf, chairman of the prize winning group, 150 invitations have been extended to drum corps throughout Connecticut as well as in some of the adjoining states.

In keeping with the rules of the Connecticut State Fifers and Drummers Association, there will be both open and individual competition for the trophies which are now on display. The parade, which takes place at 3:30 P.M. marks a break between the afternoon and evening competition.

In the afternoon, beginning at 2 on the High School Grounds in Tyler Street, the open, the junior and the individual contests will take place. The activity switches to the High School Gymnasium for the evening till starting at 8. The senior and more individual competitions take place at this time.

There is a small admission charge for the senior competition. The proceeds of this affair go toward the operating expense of the corps.

Started in 1941
The Bradford Manor Corps was started in 1941 and is sponsored by the Bradford Manor Hose Company and the ladies auxiliary in Momauguin.

The field day will be in charge of the corps committee which is appointed each year from the members of the Hose Company and auxiliary.

The committee members devote Tuesday and Wednesday evenings during the year and their weekends during the Summer to help the youngsters in the corp in having a successful season and keep them on a self-supporting basis.

Successful Season
So far this season, the Bradford Manor Corps has been making a successful bid for the state championship which will be held on August 13 in Ansonia. The corps has won sixteen first and second place trophies and two certificates.

Nancy Owens, majorette, has won five medals, and Kitty Pollard, twirler, has won three medals.

In the individual competition held at Bethel, Conn., Carolyn Daniels won the first place medal for junior drumming and Jack Young won the first place medal for junior snare drumming.

They also won a $250.00 prize in an invitation competition, competing against four senior corps and one junior corps, arranged for the Zindah Grotto show on June 9 at Waterbury, Conn.

Local Republicans Fete Cappy Baldwin

East Haven Republicans honored the state party chairman, Clarence E. "Cappy" Baldwin, last night at a picnic on the grounds of Adelbert C. Williams, Momauguin. More than 100, including many Branford GOPs, attended.

Speakers in addition to the guest of honor included First Selectman James J. Sullivan, Senator William Paulson, and Representatives Vincent J. Fasanio, Mrs. Charlotte E. Miller, and Mrs. Alice Peterson.

Hanley Gives 40 & Iron Lung To Police

Volunteers 328 of the 40 and 8, American Legion, gave a new-type portable iron lung to the State Police. The iron lung, which will be used in emergency cases, was presented to Lt. George H. Reiner commander of the Bethany Barracks, by Chief-gare Herbert H. Hanley of the Harry R. Bartlett Post.

E.H. & Bfd. Entrants Among Prizewinners At Model Plane Meet

In competition with about two hundred contestants, two model airplane enthusiasts, one from East Haven and the other from Branford more than "kept 'em flying". Sponsored by the Herald-Plymouth, the control-line meet was held Sunday at the Airport in Stratford.

William Paulson, 919 High Street, East Haven, took second places in both the C and D classes winning two kits and a motor. Thomas Cimino, 27 Bradley Street, Branford, a member of the Branford Sky Wolves, won himself a new motor by placing second in class C.

The local entrants showed particularly well in the face of strong competition. The best that the ten-man crew from the Elm City Gas Bugs of New Haven could do was to place two of their model pilots in the prizewinning brackets.

1859's Celebrate 180 Years Of Living

Mrs. Esther Eliza Beardsley, Life-long East Haven Resident, Was 90 Years Old On Friday

Mrs. Esther Eliza Beardsley of 811 Thompson Avenue was 90 last Saturday when she received happy birthday wishes from a large circle of friends. Mrs. Beardsley, who was born July 23, 1859, at the corner of Gerish Avenue and Tyler Street, has been a resident of East Haven from then until now. She is the oldest living member of Christ Church, having been confirmed there at the age of 18 years by Bishop Williams of Middletown.

Mrs. Beardsley is the daughter of Willys Childsey and Emily Bradley. Her ancestors on both sides of the family were among East Haven's pioneer settlers. Mrs. Beardsley is the widow of Meeker K. Beardsley who died a year ago.

Tomorrow's The Time To Be Made A Voter

Tomorrow, Friday, is the time to be made a voter. The places where this privilege may be fulfilled are at each of the three voting districts from 12 noon until 9 P.M.

The voting district and the places therein where the Registrars of Voters will be located are: Center District at the Town Hall, Momauguin District at the Bradford Manor Fire House and Foxon District at Highland School. Those from the West End District will also report to the Town Hall.

Couched in its technical phraseology, the notification by General Registrar of Voters Mathew Anstasio and John V. Simoni advises the Electors of the Town of East Haven that the Registrars of Voters are in session "for the purpose of making an enrollment of the Electors who are entitled to vote in any Primary or Caucus and for the purpose of making such changes in the enrollment lists last perfected as are hereinafter provided for."

East Haven Crash Results in Fatality

About six A.M. Sunday an automobile left the highway and crashed into utility pole on Main Street near Parade Place. The victim of the fatal accident was George T. McDermott, Jr., of 36 Admiral Street, New Haven, the driver.

Police Chief Edwin B. Priest and Patrolman Albert Wheeler and John Henry the investigators, indicated that the unknown reason the car apparently crossed over to the left side of the road and struck the pole. The impact hurled McDermott from the vehicle. He was pronounced dead upon arrival of an ambulance.

Estimates Due
Town Clerk Margaret Tucker has notified all town departments to have their estimates for the fiscal year commencing Oct. 1 in the hands of the Board of Finance at its meeting Monday at 8 in the Town Hall.

Each department is also asked to estimate its anticipated unexpended funds at the close of the year.

No Polio Here

Dr. Rocco Bove, health officer for the Town of East Haven, stated last night that, "Up to this date there is no polio in East Haven." However, he went on to make suggestions to all the townspeople in view of the nine new cases of infantile paralysis reported in Connecticut this past week.

The local health officer warns parents to be alert to early signs of illness or changes in the normal state of health. A physician should be called at once if there are symptoms of headache, nausea, upset stomach, muscle soreness or stiffness, or unexplained fever. Early diagnosis and prompt treatment are important.

Important Precautions
Further, Dr. Bove outlined five important precautionary measures which are explained below.

1. Avoid crowds and new contacts in trains, buses or boats, if possible; avoid crowded places where you may be close to another's breath or cough. The exact method by which polio spreads is not completely known but the virus is present in discharges from the nose and mouth of a person who has the disease.

2. Avoid over-fatigue. Too active play, late hours, worry, irregular living schedules may invite a more serious form of the disease. It is believed that over-fatigue and too strenuous exercise may precipitate a paralytic form of the disease in a person who has a previously unrecognized infection.

Avoid Chilling
3. Avoid chilling. Take off wet clothes and shoes at once. Keep dry shoes, sweaters blankets and coats handy for sudden weather changes. Sudden chilling of the body, as may occur in a plunge into cold water or a hot day, may lead to a serious form of the disease.

4. Postpone nose and throat operations during a polio epidemic outbreak. Although Connecticut statistics thus far do not substantiate the theory, many doctors believe that a severe form of polio myelitis frequently follows operations on the nose and throat.

5. Keep clean. Wash hands after going to toilet and before eating. Keep food covered from flies and other insects. Burn or bury garbage not lightly covered. Avoid using another's pencil, handkerchief, uterinal or food touched by soiled hands. Since the virus has been found in nose, mouth and bowel discharges and on flies, general hygienic measures are necessary in this as in other diseases.

Bartlett Post Members Busy Rest Of Week

The semi monthly meeting of the Legion will be held at the club rooms on Thursday, July 28 at 8:30 P. M. The slate of officers for the ensuing year will be elected in by the nominating committee comprised of the following members: Anthony Caruso, chairman; William Tomlinson, Frank Wells, Joseph Steiner, and John Enright.

Commander Roland Graves will preside at the meeting and a large turnout of members is requested.

The members who will attend the State Legion convention which is being held in New Haven on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, as delegates are Commander Roland Graves, John Enright, Thomas McMahon, Hiram Myers, Maurice Sarason, Alfred Bolvin and Charles Coyle.

St. Clare's Men's Club To Sponsor Carnival

A committee headed by Robert Buechele is putting the finishing touches on the arrangements for the St. Clare's Men's Club Carnival which opens August 8 and runs through the night of August 13. The annual affair will be held at the corner of Coasey Beach and Coe Avenues.

Booths and rides are among the feature attractions. A highlight of the six day affair is the closing night award of a television set to some lucky individual. Some of the less fortunate will also go home with prizes.

Those who are assisting Mr. Buechele include Thomas Hayes, Joseph Hines, John Flanagan and Matthew Hogan.

MRS. MARY MARTIN RESIGNS
Mrs. Mary Martin has resigned from her position as teacher of the third III-IV at the Highland School.

Mrs. Lillian E. Maher of Woodmont has been appointed to fill the resulting vacancy.

Pequot Tribe Meeting

The newly appointed chiefs of the Pequot Tribe No. 71, Improved Order of Red Men, held their first meeting last Monday evening. The gathering was at the tribal wigwam on Main Street.

Sachem Matthew Anastasio presided and the other officers who announced their duties were Peter Lironicelli, senior saganore; Joseph Sinicich, junior saganore; Louis Balista, prophet; John Tinari, first sanna; William Durso, second sanna; Vincent Cusano, Jr., guard of the wigwam; Loyoy Bombriant, guard of the forest; Joseph Manucisco, also, Sal Longobardi, Alex Thomson, Ernest Casiglione, warriors. William Guest, Ernest Hart, John Bushie and Anthony F.olo, braves; Clifford Barrows, music master.

Deputy Great Sachem Joseph Ferratolo of Hammonasset Tribe will guide Pequot Tribe again for the coming year.

No More Tracks On Hemingway Ave.

State Highway Commissioner, G. Albert Hill, has announced that the signs with which the State Highway Department has legally closed off Hemingway Avenue are, in effect, green lights for the paving work on the local portion of the state artery. Hemingway Avenue is with Coe Avenue, the direct route from East Haven Green and Main Street, the Old Past Road to Momauguin and the East Shore.

One of the most notable improvements to come out of the road improvement project is the removal of tracks and ties, trademarks of the trolley era. This conforming with the improvements made to Coe Avenue several years ago. Incorporated in the overall job is the rebuilding of Hemingway Avenue from curb to curb.

Once the paving is begun, the road will be partially opened to traffic.

Conn. Cancer Society Entries At State Fairs

Recent Bride

Don't be surprised this summer and fall, in strolling through exhibits of Connecticut Country Fairs, to see a cheerful local Cancer Branch volunteer stationed between the prize chickens and turnips, manning a local Cancer Society display. Both the recent gathering of information center directors and Public Education Committee members took an eager view of fairs as ideal places to sound cancer's warning message to the public.

THE GOOD SHEPHERD

BY BILL AHERN

There is a picture somewhere in this world called, "The Angelus." Nearly all have seen the reproductions which show a farmer in the fields bowing his head in momentary pause and offering a brief prayer to the Almighty for the miracle which passes from his hand, in the form of seed, to the harvest some weeks later, in fruit.

Within practically every person lies the wherewith to plant a seed and months later bring it forth into life. It is the wonder of existence made sacred by the sacrament, Matrimony.

There is a third group which also sows—Not the seed of plant life, nor the sperm of humanity—but a spiritual essence. They are the clerics and the teachers.

In their way they are farmers; but in a far nobler sense. For they bury in the earth of reasoning, a seed more precious than life—the seeds of noble thoughts and virtuous deeds. The harvest time is not measured in weeks of lush, verdant growth, nor does the moon calendar months of maternal succulence, instead its issue takes place at that shadowy hour, when material things are shunted aside, and the great judge weighs the scales and balances the trays—deeds and thoughts against physical accretions.

It is in recognition of his work in the field religious that the parishioners of St. Mary's Church and the townspeople of Branford, and, indeed, the state, will salute the Rev. Fr. Edmund A. Cotter on Sunday, July 31st, 1949.

The occasion will be particularly joyous since the fête will be one of dual remembrance. The occasion will also mark the golden anniversary of the erection of St. Mary's Church on its present Main Street site.

In a way the physical properties of both priest and church have been similar.

The St. Mary's Building Fund was organized at the old Music Hall on Sunday, August 14, 1898. The president was Thomas P. Carney, vice president, John J. Doyle; secretary, M. P. Harding; assistant secretary, W. J. Rice. The treasurer was the Rev. B. F. Broderick, D.D.

The Rt. Rev. M. Tierney, D.D. placed the stone and the Rev. Walter J. Shanley, rector of St. Joseph's Cathedral preached the sermon at the cornerstone rites on August 27, 1899.

The Chapel of the church was dedicated on January 21st, 1900. Bishop Tierney officiated and the preacher was the Rev. Thomas G. Duggan. Thereafter Mass was said in the basement chapel.

Meanwhile the work of creating the beautiful interior of the edifice was continued. Piece by piece each part was added to the project as money flowed from the pockets of the townspeople in little rivulets which like tiny streams grew into brooks and rivers and finally reached the bay of fulfillment.

The project was not alone financed by Catholics. Henry Plant contributed $5,000. A. E. and V. T. Hammer chipped in with worthwhile donations. So, also, did S. A. Griswold. But the bulk came from the dollars and halves and quarters of the faithful.

But in 1904 when the final appendages had been added to the beautiful structure, a midnight fire destroyed its interior. The spectacular conflagration took place on November 25th. Most of the damage was covered by insurance but the gifts, the beautiful altar contributed by Mrs. Henry Plant, the memorial windows, and several of the adornments, the pulpit, the sanctuary, were complete losses.

The ashes were not completely cool when the work was recommenced.

Eventually, in 1906, the structure was restored. There on Sundays and Holy Days, the faithful thronged to take part in the Holy Mass, in Benediction, in Vespers. They heard the word of God clarioned from the lips of wise counselors.

Shepherds of the flock through the half century were the Reverend Fathers: Edward Marlin, M. P. McCarthy, T. J. Murray, Patrick McCarthy, Edward J. Demenske, Edmund A. Cotter and William M. Withbey.

It was on April 13rd 1930, that Bishop Maurice J. McAuliffe appointed Fr. Cotter to serve the people of St. Mary's in Branford.

A native of Ansonia, Fr. Cotter received his early education in the schools of that city. He was among the first of the students to attend St. Thomas Seminary in Hartford and was graduated from there in 1903. He was sent to St. Brieux Seminary in France to take his philosophical courses. His theological studies, begun there, were continued at Willibald's Seminary, Eichstaet, Germany; at the Piacenza Seminary in Italy and were completed in St. John's Seminary in Brighton, Mass. He was ordained a priest in St. Joseph's Cathedral, Hartford, on July 31, 1900 and said his first Mass the following day in the Church of the Assumption in Ansonia.

He spent temporary service in Shelton and Baltic before being appointed assistant at St. Peter's Church in Danbury.

It was in the latter city that the priest surprised the congregation of the church.

When the call came for Catholic chaplains in the U. S. Army at the time of the First World War, Father Cotter quietly applied to Bishop Nilan for permission to serve. Gaining the necessary indulgence, he went to Boston where he passed the medical requirements. He returned to Danbury to await orders. When they arrived he departed for Camp Meade, Md., where he was commissioned a First Lieutenant. So quietly did he make the arrangements that he was on his way before the residents of Danbury were aware of the details.

In the service, he made a great record as a befriender of the dough-boy. He watched over the religious affairs of the American soldier with all the solicitude of a mother teaching her son the Ten Commandments. On occasion, he defied military decisions to bring justice to some unfriended warrior.

And he was successful in his army career as his home town paper had predicted. His early training for the priesthood gave him many chances for that success. He was accomplished in English, Italian, French and German. His training in philosophy gave him a keen insight into the soldier's mind. The friends he made were legion.

He was discharged with honors on June 24th, 1919.

Upon his return to Connecticut, he was made temporary administrator of St. Laurent's Church in Meriden. On December 3, 1919, he was assigned to St. John's Church in Middletown. In January, 1926 he transferred to the chaplaincy of St. Agnes' home and four months later was given the pastorate of St. Mary's Parish in Stonington.

After eight years in the latter parish, he was forced to take a long leave of absence because of a serious illness. Then, after a remarkable recovery, he came to Branford and St. Mary's.

For thirteen years, now, he has wrought his influence upon St. Mary's and its people; and likewise the townsfolk.

Greater than the call of friendship is his devotion to duty.

Big people in the state and the east are proud to call him friend and all of his many kindnesses are cloaked under anonymity. Disturbed at being called an "easy-mark" he has nevertheless bled himself of the blood of financial security to give solvent standing to those in need.

Basically Father Cotter does not aspire to worldly things. His life is his religion.

For the local priest has witnessed a miracle. There is an Order of the Holy Ghost within the Catholic Church. Its Mother House is at St. Brieux, France. While a student there, Father Cotter went on a diocesan pilgrimage to Lourdes. Several Sisters were on the pilgrimage and one of their number was Sr. Justinian, an invalid, who was encased in a complete plaster cast. The future chaplain wheeled the carriage, in which she was placed, to the Grotto.

In the remarkable manner so peculiar to Lourdes, the Sister was cured and she walked back to the convent. Although her recovery was hailed with joy, the Medical Bureau did not declare it miraculous then, but ten years later, when she went back to Lourdes, after spending a decade teaching, her case was reviewed and declared a miracle. It was so noted in history.

The account of the event was published in the diocesan newspaper. It was also chronicled in a pamphlet, published in both English and French, by Fr. Cotter.

It may be that by witnessing the sublimity of that occasion, the Branford pastor formed a habit which is the mystification of all who

LEGION REVENGES WALLINGFORD LOSS AT HAMMER FIELD

Branford's American Legion team gained a measure of revenge over Wallingford's Junior Legion nine at Hammer Field last Thursday night when Ad Long tossed a three hit pitching effort at the lads who are leading the district standing. His mates pounded two upstate hurriers, Stevens and Padellingo, for twelve hits as the locals won 7 to 2.

The current leaders got off to a one run lead in the first when De Balse singled to center with one out. He stole second and went to third when Long's wild pitch eluded Taylor. Carretta's single to center gave the Wallingford lads their first tally when De Balse scored.

Branford came right back to count three in their half. Abondi walked with one out and went to second on a passed ball. Blake Lehr chased him to third and threw to left. Joe Chandler walked but Long was a strikeout victim. Murphy's one base blow to center tallied both Lehr and Chandler. Massey fanned to end the inning.

On the third, Lehr was hit by a pitch with one out. He stole second while Chandler was popping to the first sacker. Long's hit through the third baseman gave the locals their fourth run.

Another run apiece was chalked up in the fourth when Long walked Bessarab who stole second and went to third on a wild pitch to score when Long loaded the sacks on Gannon and Padellingo.

Valenti pegged perfectly to home on Taylor's fielder's choice. Hayward reached third and tallied when Mason hit into an infield out.

The locals led the tilt in the sixth frame in the gathering darkness when they batted around against a discouraged Wallingford combine. Five runs crossed the platter on four hits batted out by Mason, Lehr, Chandler, and a double by Long. All four counted.

Murphy made the fifth when he worked his way for a pass and then eased around the sacks on some loose Wallingford play.

Ed. Sobolewski's No-hitter Paces Branford Victory

The finest pitching performance hurled by Ed. Sobolewski in many years was credited to Ed. Sobolewski at Exhibition Stadium last Sunday evening when the Townies overcame a two run deficit with three in the fourth to edge the Sakers 2 to 1.

Although big Ed did not start the game, he was rushed to the mound in the first frame after starter Mel Bigelow, who tried to work out a sore shoulder, had walked five batters for two runs. With two out the Russell Street youth took over the huriling burden and fanned six while walking three over the remainder of the seven innings.

The locals had three hits off McGinness, the Jr. Tars hurler. Rudnick and Lynch were credited with the runs off Bigelow although it was the passes to Noyes, Radora and Dahlgard, after two were out which forced the tallies home.

Branford's runs came in the fourth when Bob Lake, stellar shortstop, opened the frame with a single. Kenny Newton walked but Sobolewski fouled out to catcher Kelly. Lake and Newton advanced on a balk. The Springfield College youth scored on Lynch's error and Newton dented the plate on a wild pitch by McGinness. Marsh, who had reached on the error worked his way around on a stolen base, a passed ball and a long outfield fly to left.

Other local hits came in the second when Dave Marsh singled and in the fifth when Dick Dolan belted a safety.

know him. His memory is so prodigious that he can recall not only the dates but the time of the happenings of even minor events of his life.

The forty years of Fr. Cotter's priesthood have truly made him a shepherd of the flock. His pasture is the verdancy of faith. To be sure, he does not mount the pulpit anymore to spread the Gospel in his Oxfordian English, clipped and precise, but there are the lame, the halt and the troubled, who still seek to unburden heavy minds.

It is as if he leaves the flock in the hands of the shepherd-boy while he searches the crags and the hilltops to bring, not only the black sheep but the slightly tarnished white ones, back to the fold.

Yes, the eighty priests who attend Fr. Cotter's dinner today and the nuns and the thousands who take part in his fortieth anniversary Mass on Sunday and later attend the reception in the church hall, can look upon the venerable pastor and realize that one person has found the secret of the creation.

It is simply put in the catechism.

"God made me to know Him; to love Him; to serve Him, in this life, and to be happy with Him in the next."

Fr. Cotter has well fulfilled the first three requirements. May his coming years be filled with the blessed anticipation of the latter.

Legion Pounds Hamdenites In Saturday Tilt

Using all available men, Branford's Legion baseball team unloaded a fourteen hit assault on a hapless Hamden Legion nine at Hammer Field last Saturday afternoon to win going away 12 to 5.

Two hits and loose play gave Hamden a four run edge in the opening inning but the locals came right back to tally an equal number of times in the second frame.

Vin Casanova was in complete charge after the disastrous first and except for a long triple in the eighth which scored Turner who reached on Devlin's error, the team went on to gain the duke.

The big four run second and an even bigger eight run fifth frame provided Branford's two scoring punches.

Bob Mason with three hits in three at-bats and Joe Chandler's three for five were the big moments in the 14 hit local onslaught.

Norton Stars Meet Prevues On Saturday

The Branford Pre-Vues will be headed for East Haven on Saturday morning to meet the Norton All Stars in a return engagement at the High School Field at 9:30.

The ace of the Branford mound staff, Butch Gordon, will go to the hill and the bulk of the receiving will fall to the capable hands of Joe Mike Kilmas who has been improving by leaps and bounds over the short season. At first base Ronnie Tremantano will get the call and either Paul Anleskovich or Burt Massey will be at second. Bill General and Bernie Erickson will divide the chores at shortstop as will Mailloux and Jack McGowan at third.

Torelli, Ceccorelli and Bobby Knecht will get the starting call on the outfield.

Jackie Norton will do the pitching for the Easties and either Clough or Gagliardi will uphold him. Wat Smith will be on first and Mike Kilmas will be the keystone combination. Ed Henry, a real hitter, will take the third base chores. The outfield will be handled by Pete Zingerella, Ed Post and Mari Mozzillo.

Pre-vues Nip Easties 5-4

The Branford Pre-vues, twenty talented ball players from the Review Baseball School, showed the way to an advance of baseballers from East Haven last Saturday morning at Hammer Field when they won in the seventh inning 5 to 4 in a hotly contested fray.

East Haven scored first in the inning when Ed Clough singled but was out when Wat Smith hit into a fielder's choice to shortstop, Bernie Erickson who flipped to Burt Massey for the force. Smith beat the play to first. Ed Clough scored by a fielder's choice.

Foote Smith after the lads had copped second base. He tallied on a wild pitch by Rog Anderson a moment later. Gagliardi fled out to Ceccorelli to end the frame.

Branford went ahead in the second when Ronnie Tremantano walked after Anderson had grounded to the pitcher, Norton. The first baseman went to second on a passed ball. Pasty Donofrio walked and General stole second.

Clough singled to left and Kilmas was safe on an error. General singled home Mailloux but Kilmas was nabbed off second. Clough stole second and went to third when Norton threw wild to centerfield. Paul Anleskovich hit in to a fielder's choice and General was nabbed at the plate by Clough.

Norton's All Stars tallied three times in the fourth when Vin Gagliardi and Ed Henry singled with one out. Merl Mozzillo popped to Anderson but successive singles by Pete Zingerella and Anthony Mazzilli pushed across three runs. The latter as cut down when Joe Kilmas pegged to McGowan for the final out.

Branford came back to even the count with a pair in the last half of the fourth. Mailloux singled and Kilmas was safe on an error. General singled home Mailloux but Kilmas was nabbed off second. Clough stole second and went to third when Norton threw wild to centerfield. Paul Anleskovich hit in to a fielder's choice and General was nabbed at the plate by Clough.

Reds To Meet Branford Nine In Sunday Tilt

An old time Branford favorite, Pinky McTrotles, with his co-coach, Timmy Carr, will return to Branford on Sunday bringing the East Haven Reds in tow in an effort to push the third place Branford Townies down from their perch in the Greater New Haven Baseball League. The game will be played at Hammer Field starting at 3 P.M. at 3 P.M.

The tilt will be carried over a loud speaking system and a double coffee percolator will be awarded to the winner of the lucky number on the admission ticket.

Coach Joe Orsene said last night that his ace right hander, Mel Bigelow will probably get the nod to face Branford's arch rivals but in case he is injured Dick Dolan will not respond to treatment. Ed Sobolewski will go to the hill.

The latter turned in a no hit performance against the Sailor Juniors last Sunday in West Haven.

Sal Perrotti is expected to go to the mound for the McTrotles coached nine and O'Connell will be his battery mate. Spencer will be on first and Albano will be at the keystone sack. D'Onofrio will be in the short field and in the dizzy corner, Ed McKinnell will knock down the lners. A trio of dangerous and long ball hitters, Augie Perrotti, Walter and Thompson, will patrol the garden.

Branford's defense will feature the new left side combination of Bobby Lake and Willie Proto. Either Jim Murphy or Don Erickson will be at shortstop and Bernie Erickson will hold forth as usual at second base. Newton, Jackson, Marsh, Ralola, Mohre will compete for the starting outfield berths and either Alan Bradley or Barney Struzinski will don the mask and pads.

Hamden Post Does Not Halt Local Array

The Corcoran Sundquist Post nine finished the regular scheduled district season of the Junior American Legion baseball play in these parts Monday evening at Rochford Field when it downed Post 150, 9 to 2.

The win was Branford's second over the Highwood Post team. The game was decided as early as the second frame when Branford tallied four times with two outs. Murphy walked, Hayward singled, Devlin singled Murphy home. Taylor walked, Mason singled Hay and Devlin home and Taylor scored when Abondi hit to center. Lehr ended the inning by hitting an infield fly to Sherman, Hamden first sacker.

Hamden counted in the fourth when Sherman walked and went to second on an infield out. Anderson's single to center gave Hamden its first score but Long ended the frame by forcing the next pair of hitters to ground to the infield.

Lucasheit gave Hamden its other counter in the first when he walked on assists by Norton and Henry. In the rundown Anleskovich went to second. Bobby Knecht walked and McGowan singled Anleskovich home.

Falsy Donofrio took over the mound duties in the fifth and East Haven failed to hit thereafter. Branford went out in order in the fifth and although they got three successive singles in the sixth, Jack Norton was able to keep them from denting the plate.

In the last half of the seventh, with one out, Robbins received an Annie Oakley. He stole second and when Norton attempted to pick him off second the ball went to center field and Robbins to third. A pick-off play to catch Robbins was thwarted shortly after when Clough failed to handle Gagliardi's low throw and Robbins romped home with the winning tally.

East Haven notched 6 hits in the losing effort and Branford belted Norton for nine.

Mohre Loses To Marlins In Fast Fray

Donny Mohre outpitched Johnny Bergin of the Marlin baseball team in a greater New Haven League contest at Hammer Field last evening but fourth as a decision, 5 to 1, on wildness and timely hitting.

Boostered by the addition of one Connecticut's top receivers Andy Santillo, the Firearms people started the fireworks early in their belated bid to reach the top rung of the circuit. At the present time, the Giordano Hornets, are the sole possessors of the top spot.

Bergin walked three in gaining the duke but the Columbia University youth, making his second start for the locals, issued five free passes.

Marlins, playing as the home team, got two runs in the first when Sonny Kissner and Berman tallied on a pair of hits an error, and two walks.

A single hit, a double, by Frank Dempsey and a walk to Bremen counted twice more for the victors in the fourth as a sacrifice bunt placed the men in position to count on a close play to the plate. Both runs tallied when Al Bradley was bowled over on a cut-off play.

The clincher came in the last half of the sixth. Barbato walked and was advanced by Carpenter's sacrifice bunt when Lake, three high from deep in the slot in a belated effort to catch Santillo going to first, Barbato counted.

Although Branford got one more hit than the New Haveners, it could never make them count. Its lone score came in the sixth when Newton reached on an error and Mohre walked behind him. Although Dave Marsh fanned his brother Karl, pinch-hitting for Erickson, singled to left to save the locals from a whitewash.

Ralola, Newton and Dolan got the other Branford hits in the third, fourth and seventh frames, respectively.

He went to third on a wild pitch and scored on an infield out.

In its half of the same frame, the locals counted once when Chandler opened with a single to center. He stole second and scored when Ed Murphy belted a hit to left.

In the sixth, Post 83, added four insurance runs on five straight hits by Taylor, Mason, Abondi, Lehr and Chandler.
