Pine Orchard Reaches 93d Year

Former railroad James J. Ryan of Spring Rock Road, Pine Orchard, celebrated his ninety-third birthday last Saturday and was guest of honor at a party on Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John J. Kennedy of 29 Carow Road, Hamden. Retired now, Ryan, who remembers clearly the road days of railroading, began work for the New Haven in 1882, just three days after it arrived in this country from Ireland. He had worked only at farming back in County Kerry, but when someone asked him if he wanted a job with the railroad, he jumped at the chance. He worked as a mailman's helper, and was on the wrecker for a time before he finally became foreman of the Tanks and Tenders Department, a job which he held until his retirement in 1924. Railroad work has changed a lot through the years, but he will tell you and remembers that he helped make some of the early improvements such as substituting steel for cast iron in draw-bar axles, and the use of the first automatic car couplers on the New Haven line. Ryan has his own home at Pine Orchard, and attends St. Theresa's Church in Stony Brook. He is a frequent visitor at the Kennedy's in Hamden. He has a source of comfort and blessing to the one who offers prayer—his little home and his wife and children. He is a member of the first automatic car couplers on the New Haven line. "Heart To Heart Talk" Is Study Topic For World History Class

Prayers of thankfulness for the death and gifts of God to man should ascend from every grateful heart. Do we pray in our busy lives to thank God for all His benefits? Men in trouble pray. Many in the face of death and danger, have prayed for the first time. How many times have we heard someone say, "I prayed then, if I never prayed before." A man who realizes he is losing his sight in spite of expert medical care, at last turns to God. Would he pray if his eyes were good? A mother whose baby physicians have failed to heal, in the end, places that God will save his life. If the baby were not in danger, would she pray that God would guide her in the training of the child? We will pray when we are in danger or face a face with death. Do we also pray for one who is going away, that God will show us how to live righteously? True, God hears the prayer of the friend of the bereaved, and often grants the request. But are we being fair to God—fair to ourselves? It pays to pray every day. It is the best insurance policy. Little prayer, little power; no prayer, no power. Prayer is a source of comfort and blessing to the one who offers prayer—his little home and his wife and children. He is a member of the first automatic car couplers on the New Haven line.

THE GRAND LIST LOSS

There is an alarming note found in East Haven's Grand List report given out last week by Assessor James Milano. It concerns the loss of small businesses and factories to the town. The loss of tax revenue to the town will be felt despite encouraging reports from building and new car fields. Any such loss cannot be regained from any other source. Property owners will make up the loss by being taxed to cover the figure. Even if the tax rate is reduced, it might have been lessened further. If it is increased, it will be added in that both, partially because of that loss. The town wants firm in string enterprises. We are not a boom town, Good solid firms can exist comfortably within our borders. That was proven twice within the past year. It is for the town's welfare to make East Haven attractive to new enterprises. Yet, remain attractive to its residents. One way to lower the tax burden is in keeping our shops, our small factories, our businesses. The way to tax in advance is public support. We believe that every citizen should, whenever possible, trade at home. When you can't buy what you want here, buy it close to home as possible.

OUR DEMOCRACY

THE BULLETIN. Communicating this bulletin week copies of the Legislative Bulletin will be sent to the office of the Town Clerk and to the Bucktons. This plan of distribution of information originated last session and will be repeated this term. The Town Clerk and the Librarian have been cooperative in placing the copy where it is accessible for public use. Thirty two committees are listed on the cover page and the number of the room in which public hearings and executive sessions are conducted. Listed on other pages are the names of members of each of the committees along with the names of the House and Senate chairmen and clerks. Such information is particularly useful when the public wishes to contact members of the General Assembly on a legislative bill. For the most part the Bulletin is devoted to notices of the time and date of public hearings and is issued each session. Inasmuch as chairman make an effort to enforce anti-trust laws, the Constitution Amendments committee, for instance, has a long list of bills which contain hearings as far as a month in advance. The present appropriation for the Compliance Division is only $60,000. Even tripling this amount would be a small change by present government standards. The FTO will not get more than $100,000. The monthly expense: Federal income tax $31.30; Social Security tax $1.00; Family food and shelter $45; lunches $15; clothing, cleaning, etc., $14.00; car, medical and dental $1.00; insurance premium $7; haircuts, razor blades, etc., $2.50. Total $109.00. In another week the President will present his tax plan to raise another $10 billion to meet the budget plan for 1954. (Continued on page 3)

"SMALL BUSINESS"

Congressmen of both parties can't decide whether to amend or concern by the budget act. They can't decide whether the budget is planned to promote defense, productivity or economic recovery. Congressmen can only enact the laws to be passed. The plan of distribution of information originated last session and will be repeated this term. The meeting of the Half Hour Reading Club was held on Thursday, Feb. 11th at the Blackstone Memorial Library at 2:30 P. M. Mrs. Samuel A. Griswold, Vice President, presided. After salute to the flag and club collect repeated, reports were given by Miss Harriet Cox, Secretary, Mrs. Donald Sawtelle, Treasurer, Mrs. George Adams, corresponding secretary, read an invitation from the New Haven Women's Club to attend a meeting at their club house March 2nd.

Lotus is grown in pools and stone jars. seeds are used for food and roots for vegetables. Many paintings are made of the chrysanthemums of autumn—yellow and white the most popular colors, and noted for their gratefulness and durability. Plum is the Chinese national flower, five petals represent the five groups that China is composed of. Other flowers, described were the orchid, very delicate and fragrant, bamboo, good subject for painting, and very popular all year round. Magnolia, pine, camellia, narcissus represent different characteristics of the Chinese people. The peony is used for wedding presents, the pine for birthdays evergreen for engagement parties. Chinese tea is named for many flowers.

The 118 annual meeting of the New Haven Children's Center will be held on Wednesday, February 21st, at 2:30 at the Center, Miss Ann K. Buell, new Case Worker Supervisor, will be present, and Miss Eleanor P. Sheldon, Director of Family and Children's Center, Stamford, Conn. will be the speaker. Tea will be served.

STONY CREEK

MRS. HERBERT ALLEN - 8-2472

With the remodeling of the John Brainerd home that was once known as the Willows and before that the Brainerd House, our little town is changing. I sit and listen to the older people tell about the time when there were four hotels and nearly every home had a boarder or two. Some of the things I can even remember with all these changes from time to time. Our town is getting to be a memory spot in peoples' minds.

We have three new First Class Scouts in our troop here in Stony Creek. They are Kenneth Williams, Carol Oloveson and Arthur Allen. Good work boys, lets not stop here. Boy Scout and Cub Scout supper, Monday the 19th at the Church of Christ for Stony Creek Pack and Troop. Parents are asked to attend and please bring own table service.

Mr. Howard Kelsey, Supt. Lee Lay, still on our sick list. Mrs. Charles O. Seasstrand laid up with a bad leg, Mr. Dirk Francois, Sr., in New Haven Hospital. Business is growing in town. The Materna Line is having more floor space laid upstairs over the Old Stage (The Old Parish Players House).

Clarence W. Hoyt home for a 30-day leave from the Korean wars. He is with the U. S. Navy. Mrs. Frank Sanzero and son Howard of Marine Corps spent Friday with Mrs. G. B. Kerth of Madison.

Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sanzero drove toward Hingham, Mass. where he will be stationed for a while. Mrs. Daisy Dougherty confined to bed with virus (cards). Think over this thought: Have you spread your ray of sunshine today? By calling on some shut-in or elderly person? DO-IT-TODAY. Tomorrow may be too late!

BIRTHDAYS Myra Huble is a Valentine girl, February 14. ADDRESS CHANGED Pfc. Howard J. Sanzero, 1159462 Marine Barracks, M.A.B., Hingham Mass. Fireman Apprentice Donald Atkinson, 719-65-91, W.R. Rush (714 DDUSS), c-o, P.F.O. San Francisco, Calif.

co. Calif. Sgt. John G. Altermatt, 601905, 1 Co. 3 Bat. 5th Marines, c-o P.F.O. San Francisco, Calif. To the wives and sweethearts of the men who belong to Stony Creek Rescue Fire Company, The Auxiliary would like to extend the invitation to become members of our group.

John Brainerd is lowering the roof of his house. The alteration requires the removal of the third floor of the building. At present the building is quite high. The third floor is composed mostly of bed rooms.

The building is one of the landmarks of Stony Creek, formerly "The Brainerd House" owned and run as a hotel by John's grandparents the late Mr. and Mrs. John Whitley Brainerd, and was later owned and managed by their son, Alvin Brainerd.

Of course the improvement will add much to the appearance, but the older residents of the village feel sorry to see any change in one of the line old buildings.

Deacons meeting, 8:00 p.m. at the home of Mr. John Brainerd.

RECIPE FOR A HOME Half a cup of friendship And a cup of thoughtfulness, Creamed together with a pinch Of powdered tenderness. Very lightly beaten In a bowl of loyalty, With a cup of faith and one of hope And one of charity.

Be sure to add a spoonful each Of gaiety that sings, And also the ability— To laugh at little things. Moistened with sudden tears, Of heartfelt sympathy Bake in a good natured pan And serve repeatedly.
