

Coronation Souvenirs Offered

The following letter was sent to the CITIZEN from the Anglo-American Co-operation Bureau of London, England, concerning the coming coronation on May 12. It reads as follows:

"We are writing to you with the hope of securing your assistance in our efforts to promote co-operation and better understanding between the English speaking peoples.

As you are aware on May 12 next, the Coronation of their Majesties King George VI and Queen Elizabeth, of England, will take place at Westminster Abbey with all the glittering ritual and ceremony with which this event has been associated for hundreds of years past. This event will arouse world-wide interest, and will be one of the greatest outstanding scenes of historic splendour and pageantry of our life time.

Already thousands of interested Americans and Canadians have made their plans to come to our country to witness this unique and colourful ceremony. Unfortunately, however, there are many thousands of our American friends, and British born subjects in the United States, who will be unable to make the trip, and it is these people who, with your valuable help, we wish to reach.

We have arranged to send to all who are interested an eye-witness account of this historic occasion, embodying the ceremony itself, the parade and a pageantry, written by the best writers in London, and also a handsome Coronation Souvenir showing the King and Queen in their coronation regalia, in the form of either a bronze plaque, or a medalion in metal or enamel, or a lady's compact embossed with the Royal Crest and bust of the King and Queen in coronation robes. These souvenirs are of exquisite design and workmanship and made to last. In addition we propose to send a specimen of the first postage stamps issued during the next reign.

We would be grateful if you would give this letter as much publicity as possible, as it will help us tremendously in our work; you will appreciate that it would be quite impossible for us to get personally in touch with those interested.

With greetings and best wishes from Great Britain in this coronation year, we remain, in anticipation of your kind co-operation.

Yours very truly,
THE ANGLO-AMERICAN CO-OPERATION BUREAU.

Per L. C. CUMMING.

P. S. Those who are interested and desire to obtain the historic account and souvenir as mentioned above can do so by addressing a letter to:

L. C. Cumming, Esq., The Anglo-American Co-operation Bureau, Effingham House, Arundel Street, London, W. C. 2, enclosing One Dollar to cover cost and postage."

BREVITIES

Dr. Arthur B. Bishop, of 45 Bishop Street, has been confined to his home during the past week due to a slight illness.

The Eveready Group of the Old Stone Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Myron Herried of 30 Middle Road, Hamden, on Tuesday, May 4.

Queen and Children at Concert

Queen Elizabeth of England and her two daughters, Princess Elizabeth (left) and Princess Margaret Rose as they attended a concert recently at Central hall, Westminster. The concert was for London children.

Mr. F. Brigham Succumbs

Funeral services for Mr. Frederick Brigham, 75, of 532 Thompson Avenue, who passed away in Grace Hospital, New Haven, last Saturday, were held on Monday, April 26, from the W. S. Clancy Mortuary Home, 43 Kirkham Avenue, at 2:30 p. m. The Rev. Emerson L. Curry, former pastor of the Old Stone Church, lead the services and interment was in the Old Cemetery. Mr. Brigham is survived by a sister, Mrs. Edmund Woodward, of Wallingford, Conn. Flowers were provided by those of whom he did work for.

Little is known of Mr. Brigham, in that he was a very capable banker at one time. During his latter years, he earned his living by mowing lawns and tending furnaces.

The Choir of the Old Stone Church will rehearse in the Chapel this evening at 7:30.

The Young Men's Service League of Christ Episcopal Church will meet on Monday, May 3, at 7 p. m.

The Girls Friendly Society of Christ Episcopal Church will meet on Tuesday, May 4, at 8 p. m.

The Women's Guild of Christ Episcopal Church will meet at the Hagaman Memorial Library on Wednesday, May 5, at 2:30 p. m.

LIKES HER CORN-COB

Mrs. Abigail Leffingwell, of Los Angeles, ninety-eight years young, as she appeared in her latest permanent wave. She believes in modern things, but prefers her corn-cob pipe to those modern cigarettes.

Beachwood To Pay Union Wages

Last Tuesday, a majority of the members of the Cigar Maker's Union, Local No. 39, went out on strike, stating that they were the lowest paid in the skilled labor class. To date, the cigar makers have not as a whole, been willing to meet their demands.

However, the BEACHWOOD CIGAR FACTORY, of 191 Main Street, East Haven, has met the demands of the workers in conformity with the Union scale as demanded and will therefore continue to manufacture high grade cigars.

The BEACHWOOD CIGAR FACTORY is to be complimented in avoiding a strike in this community and for its interest in seeing to it that its employees receive fair and just wages and treatment.

J. N. MacKinnel Named To Board of Safety

Mr. J. Norman MacKinnel, republican, was appointed to the Board of Public Safety at its meeting last Monday night, succeeding Mr. William Ritchie, republican, who has recently resigned from the board.

The Young Republicans here named Mr. Herbert Korn for the appointment, but was defeated by MacKinnel, who was named as a candidate by Rep. Abel A. Jacobs and First Selectman Girard W. Freer.

Mr. MacKinnel is an employee of the S. N. E. T. Co., and a member of the East Haven Fire Department.

Rev. Wm. H. Nicolas To Preach At Stone Church

On Sunday, May 16, the Reverend William H. Nicolas, present pastor of Trinity Congregational Church at Beachmont, Mass., will be the guest preacher at the Old Stone Congregational Church, during the morning service. He will speak here at the recommendation of the Pulpit Supply Committee, consisting of Mr. Sydney Everett, chairman, Mrs. Sallie Lawson, Mrs. Donald Chidsey, the late Mrs. Sherwin T. Haskell, Mr. Wallace S. Coker, Mr. Earle V. Harrison and Mr. Monroe Andrews.

At 4:00 p. m. of the same afternoon, an informal reception will be held in the Parish House to which all members and friends of the Church are invited to attend.

On the following Sunday, May 23, a business meeting of the church will be held, at which time the Pulpit Supply Committee will recommend that the Rev. Mr. Nicolas be called to the pastorate of the Old Stone Church.

Christ Church To Sponsor Benefit

The members of the choir of Christ Episcopal Church will sponsor a benefit performance of "Seventh Heaven" at the Capitol Theatre on Monday and Tuesday, May 10 and 11. The proceeds from this benefit show will be used for much needed repairs to the church organ. Tickets may be obtained from members of the choir and the Sunday School.

ELDERLY CADDY

Known only as "Jim," this eighty-two-year-old man is one of the most picturesque figures of the British golfing world. A caddy at the Sunningdale links near London, Jim is on the job rain or shine with an umbrella as standard equipment.

In a meeting held recently "Kenny" Kartlin was elected captain of the E. H. H. S. Baseball team, and "Dick" Dohna will be the manager.

Relay Team Defeated

A fast and snappy track team left for Storrs (Conn. State College) last Saturday to take part in the relay championships. It was an ideal day for a meet and many records were changed. East Haven entered the class B, 889 yd. relay along with six other schools. At the start Edward Bruce supplied a good ten-yard lead and passed the stick to the next man who dropped it, and by the time he recovered it, the last man was twenty yards ahead of him. The third and anchor men, Robert Buchele and Gordon Stevens fought in vain to close the gap but finished last. There is little doubt as to how the race would have ended had the stick not been dropped.

In a practise game the high school team on a very cold Friday afternoon turned in an impressive 9-6 victory over a highly favored Milford Prep. nine.

Economy Practise

The Economy will hold another drill at Olson field at 2:30 on Sunday. They intend to open their season a week from this Sunday but no definite foe has been set.

Eighth Grade Boys

The eighth grade boys will have two teams in the grade school baseball league this spring.

Harry Strickland and Frank Crisafi have been elected by the eighth grades of high school to act as captains of their baseball teams. Both these boys were outstanding in the basketball season play on the championship team.

At a recent meeting of the Boys' Bowling Club of E. H. H. S., Frank Vercillo was elected president. Thus far Frank Vercillo, Ralph Castellon, Edward Marssett, and George Reinwald are high scorers.

The Girls' Bowling Club of E. H. H. S., recently organized under the supervision of Miss Alice Dwyer, held its first regular meeting on March 31 at the East Haven Bowling Alleys. Of the twelve "keglers" Dymna McDonough and Helen Davis rolled the highest scores.

A special Parish Meeting of Christ Episcopal Church will be held in the Church on Friday, May 7, at 8 p. m.

The W. P. A. has been cleaning up the Green during the week, in order to have it in good condition for the Memorial Day Exercises next month.

The Visiting Nurse Association will hold their regular meeting on Tuesday, May 4.

The regular meeting of the Momauguin Lodge, No. 138, A. F. & A. M. will be held on Monday, May 3, in the lodge rooms.

THE HIGH COST OF LIVING

It's an absolute shame the condition that prices on food-stuffs are as high as they are today. This is a condition that is affecting the entire country. Prices are too high for the average person today, in comparison to the country's condition. The poor will just have to starve.

There is no money in food-stuffs for the grocers of today. They keep stores more for accommodation to the public and mainly because we have to eat to live, than for a net profit. There is no profit in a business where the prices are so high.

If meat keeps on the upward trend, nobody will buy it, and therefore the dealers will lose out.

There was one instance where a lady went into a grocery store, and after inquiring the high price of meat exclaimed: "I'm not going to buy and meat the way the prices are today, my husband will stop at the boat and buy some fish for OUR Sunday Dinner."

There is the best answer to the high cost of living in the world today.

High-Speed Drinks

Bats drink water on the wing. They are thirsty creatures and must have water once or twice a night. Unlike other mammals, however, they don't drink in high-speed sips, keeping on the surface of a stream or pond and drink in high-speed sips, keeping on the wing continuously.

Area Drained by Amazon

The area drained by the Amazon and its tributaries is more than 2,970,000 square miles, largely untamed tropical forests. The volume of water discharged into the sea annually is probably five times that of the Mississippi. Vessels of small draft can ascend the Amazon proper for more than 3,600 miles.

THE BOOK-CASE

"Old Books Are Best" Old Books are best! With what delight Does "Faithorne fecit" greet our sight On frontispiece or title-page Of that old time, when on the stage "Sweet Nell" set "Rowley's" heart alight!

And you, O Friend, to whom I write, Must not deny, e'en though you might, Through fear of modern pirates' rage "Old Books are best."

What though the print be not so bright, The paper dark, the binding slight? Our author, be he dull or sage, Returning from that distant age So lives again, we say of right: Old Books are best.

—Beverly Chew (1850-1924) As there are no new books this week, I am going to give you a list of some old ones which you ought to read. David Copperfield, Charles Dickens; Ivanhoe, Sir Walter Scott; Westward Ho, Kingsley; Richard Yea and Nay, M. H. Hewett; Hitherto, Mrs. A. D. T. Whitney; Lorna Doone, R. D. Blackmore; Ramona, H. H. Jackson; Old Peabody Pew, K. D. Wiggin.

And then there was the Scotsman who bought an automobile because his wife had gas on the stomach.

The little girl sat on her father's lap watching her mother waving her hair. Every once in a while the baby fingers would slide over the father's smooth glossy pate. "No waves for you, daddy," remarked the little one. "You're all beach."

"If you print' me more jokes about Scotsman, I'll cease borrowing your paper," write a man from Aberdeen. (Boston Transcript.)

"Some of them do, why?"
"My daughter is to be married in London and the Earl has cabled me to come across." (Our Young People.)

Naming Michigan
Michigan's first families gave the state its name, according to the Ottawa Indians of the region and at the same time expressed their high regard for the state as a garden spot. Mish-egonging, the Ottawa word for "place of clearings in the forests for gardens," is the word from whence Michigan got its name, they say. Contracted to Mish-a-gon it means simply clearing or garden. The Indians have used this region for their farms since pre-historic times, many of them wintering in the Kankakee river valley in Illinois.

The Word "Toboggan"
The word "toboggan" comes from the Canadian Indian by way of French.

OUR ORGANIZATIONS

This week, and for a few weeks to follow, this column will dwell upon the various Parent-Teachers Associations. The East Haven Parent-Teachers Association was organized on November 11, 1920. At this time all the schools of East Haven and vicinity were included under the one head. Mrs. C. L. Harrington was the first president. This continued until May of 1931, at which time each school formed its own association.

Union P. T. A.

In September of 1931, Union School formed their own Parent-Teachers Association. They meet in the school on the second Thursday of the month. The present officers are: Mrs. Marcus Gansdossy, president; Miss Anna Coleman, vice-president; Mrs. Raymond Shepard, secretary and Mrs. James Shepard, treasurer.

GRANDMA'S RADIO

Goin' to see my Grandma Used to be such heaps of fun; She never cared about the noise, And I could jump and run; Sometimes I'd chase the kitty, Just to see how fast she'd go, But that was all before the days Of Grandma's radio.

My Grandma's cookie jar Was filled up to the brim, But now she hasn't time to bake, Since she's been listenin' in, And all I hear is, "Hush, hush, hush, Don't bother people so." Can't have a bit of fun, since Grandma Got that radio.

Once I said to Grandma, "Say, what'cha hearin' now?" "Hush, hush," she said, "it's recipes; They're tellin' me just how To bake a pie," and then she wrote it In a little book; Can't see it's done me any good, 'Cause she don't stop to cook.

My Grandma always listens, No matter what she hears, And sometimes she is full of smiles, And sometimes full of tears; One day she listened fast asleep, I know, 'cause I heard snores; When she waked up, she said, "Oh, pshaw! I've missed the football scores."

So visitin' at Grandma's Ain't what it used to be; They even put the kitty now Where she can't play with me; And all that I'm allowed to do Is sit and whisper low, Geel there's no more fun at Grandma's, Since she got that radio. —Florence Hascall Butler, Brookline, Nov. 1.

Aided Universalism
Hosea Ballou, one of the founders of Universalism, was born in New Hampshire in 1771. He was self-educated and was expelled from his father's church on declaring his belief in the final salvation of all men. He began to preach at twenty-one and became minister of the Second Universalist church in Boston in which he preached over 10,000 sermons, none of which was written before delivery. He died in 1852.

Use of Word "Cheque"

The Word Ignoramus
The word ignoramus is an English law term for the endorsement on the bill of indictment made by a grand jury when they throw out the bill, i. e., when they do not consider that the case should go to a petty jury. The expression is now obsolete. The terms Ignoramus jury, Ignoramus Whig, were common in the political satires and pamphlets of the time. The application of the term to an ignorant person dates from the early part of the Seventeenth century.

What's What In BUILDING CONSTRUCTION

An open forum for the discussion and explanation of construction and material problems
By Walter R. Shiner
Reg. Architect, State of Conn.

Economy in rough lumber construction is reached by using stock sized timbers and planning so that the joists and stud lengths are in 8-10 and 12 foot lengths and up. For example, an eleven foot length gives a waste of one foot of lumber on each joist or stud.

Economy is also rampant when plates are placed directly underneath the joists thus saving an extra ledger board and the labor in connection therewith. By framing the first floor joists flush with the main basement girders a foot in height can be saved in the basement excavation and the basement walls cut down one foot in height.

Stock sized windows, doors and frames save money and the doors for small houses need not be more than 6 feet eight inches high on the first floor nor more than 6 feet 6 inches on the second. For modern design the one panel Miracle is a cheap door and effective and for Colonial design the four or six panel white pine is very reasonable and also effective. By painting the woodwork, first grade selected lumber and doors are not required as the grain is covered up and a saving can be made. However, sappy spots must be shelled before priming.

If screens, weatherstrips, etc. are needed, it will be just as cheap to use the stock combinations such as Silentite and Andersen manufacture and the result will be far superior. Residence screen casements are also very reasonable and will not cost more than the ordinary wood windows and are effective in some types of design such as English. If small panes of glass are used, single thick glass will do but only a labelled glass such as Pennvernon or Libbey Owens is acceptable.

For inside trim, the package grid is available in stock in several good designs and stock stair material is also available as made by Morgan and Curtis in a variety of pleasing designs in all styles architecturally correct.

They also make in stock, kitchen cabinets, dining alcoves, china closets for square or corner spaces, in fact anything in the way of inside woodwork and the selection is varied as to design and material.

Knotty pine sheathing is available for many uses and when used without plaster backing is not so much more expensive than wall board and is much better in effect and permanence.

Oak floors are not any more expensive than pine and much better in appearance, the select grades being perfectly adapted to small homes at a reasonable price. It does not pay to use pine in kitchen department as the poorest of the oak can be thrown out when laying other floors and used in the kitchen. When kitchen is to have linoleum, be sure to have the floor sanded along with other floors, otherwise the linoleum will show lines of the joints after a few months wear.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

JUNIOR PROM

Elaborate plans are underway for the first annual Junior Promenade scheduled for Friday evening May 7, in the high school gymnasium. The dance, which will be semi-formal, will continue from nine until twelve o'clock with music furnished by Bill Broderick and his ten-piece orchestra. Bids are on sale at two dollars a couple refreshments included.

The Prom committee is headed by Celia McGuire as chairman, William Cowles is senior representative. Other committee members are Phyllis Freer, in charge of refreshments; Catherine Norwood, orchestra; Raymond Figlewski, bids; and Raymond Pratt, assisting Miss McGuire and Male with the decorations. The gymnasium will be transformed by an interior decorator, the bleachers being removed to allow for additional dancing space on the main floor, and a lounge in the balcony.

Students Visit Capitol

During the past few weeks several groups of high school students have made interesting sightseeing trips to the State Capitol at Hartford. Nelson Smith, Edward Munson, Truman Surprenant, and Sylvia Abrams, Helen Malone, and Janet Daniels, all members of the Debating Club, were the first groups to be invited as the guests of Representatives JACOBS and Herr. Two of Miss Geenty's classes in "Problems of Democracy" have since made the trip.

Each of the groups visited the State Library, the House of Representatives, the Senate, and a Committee hearing. The two latter groups attended a session of the Supreme Court.

E. H. Players

On Friday, April 9th, the East Haven Players were heard in the seventh of the series of character plays by Joseph B. Egan being broadcast over a local radio station. The play, "Sir Humphrey Davy," was presented by the following cast: John Moran, George Mild, Marie Anderson, Bernice Hansen, Edward Munson, Stanley Carleton, Larry Belanger, Stanley Shepard, Dick Parilla, Reggiano Marini, Edward Larsen, Frank Maio, William Bode and Jack White.

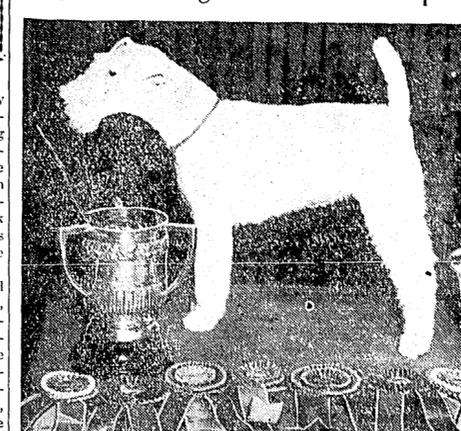

Mr. Albert Knox was in charge of sound effects, and Miss Miriam G. May was the piano accompanist. Miss Louise Scott was in general charge of the broadcast.

Eighth Grade

On Friday, April 16, the pupils of grade eight took complete charge of the assembly program. Several musical selections were sung by a chorus and the one-act play, "The King's English," was presented.

Queen of Dogdom and Her Trophies

"Flornell Spicepiece of Haleson," best dog of the recent Westminster Kennel club dog show in New York, poses with her trophies. This white wire-haired fox-terrier cleaned up quite a bit of silk and silver during the event, and was finally chosen best dog of the show and awarded the Westminster kennel trophy.

Mark Moore, as Ripley O'Rannigan, king of the western shore of the tropical island of Karra Wanga, and Zelman Leshine as Kawa Koo, cannibal king of the eastern shores, played the leading parts. Programs were designed and painted by pupils in Miss Lynch's Art Club.

Dorothy Pollock has made a clever miniature theatre in connection with the study of plays in Miss Murphy's literature class. Her model boasts a beautifully painted curtain which actually rises and falls, and a fireplace which looks very real.

Interesting notebooks about the Civil War period have been made by pupils in Miss Leary's history class.

An interesting exhibition of various types of guns and ammunition was displayed by President Anthony Russo at a recent meeting of the Fish and Game Club.

Members of the Motion Picture Club, accompanied by Miss Jane Cox, faculty adviser, went to New Haven on March 31 to see the picture, "Maytime."

NOTES

The Looking Glass Club members are at present engaged in making a scrap book for Lois Kappler, who is recovering from a serious illness. In addition they are preparing a notebook on occupational guidance, and assisting in the plans for the fashion show to be given May 14 at the monthly parents' social.

One cup molasses
One-half cup milk
Three cups flour
Two teaspoons baking powder
One teaspoon ginger
One teaspoon cinnamon
Mix together and drop in greased pan. Bake quickly.

The Hat-Box

The Cart-Wheel

Recently, a friend and I had the privilege of peering into a very large, octagon-shaped hat-box. As the cover came off we could hear the rustle of white tissue. There resting in the tissue was a very beautiful and colorful cart-wheel dress hat. It was made of the finest quality bally straw in dubonnet. A flat flower plaque set in a horseshair veil circle, was on the top of the crown. The flowers in the flower plaque were in shades of from a pale pink to a very deep dubonnet with here and there a pale yellow flower for highlight. A smaller plaque, made the same, was at the side back headsize line, under a slightly side-tipped brim, the diameter of the brim being about one foot and one-half. Around the edge of the brim was one-half inch of pointed veiling of dubonnet. The elastic band of this same color, was arranged to hold the hair to the shape of the head. This was made of wide shirred ribbon with an elastic set in.

Ancient Snake Bite Cure

One of the superstitious remedies for curing snake bites in the pioneer days in Ohio was the application of the flesh of black cats. After the cats were killed and dressed their flesh was applied to the spot on the human body that had been bitten.

AMATEUR WRITERS — ATTENTION

DEAR AMATEUR WRITERS:
There is a certain thrill that one acquires upon having one's own written compositions published in a periodical of any description, and of this fact ye editor is well aware of in offering you a chance to receive this wonderful sensation.

Just take your pencil and paper, sit down in a nice, quiet corner, and write a story, an article, a poem, or various other literary pieces, and upon completion send it to THE EAST HAVEN CITIZEN, 265 Main Street, East Haven, and ye editor will pass judgment on each and every one, the best of which will be published in the CITIZEN each week.

Each entry must not exceed 500 words, write on one side of the paper only, and if a type-writer is used a double space is preferred. The copy must be received no later than Tuesday, midnight, of each week.

This offer is open to amateur writers of all ages, particularly to those of East Haven and vicinity. Do not be discouraged if your entry is not immediately selected, just "Try, try again," and soon you will win out.

You do your part, we'll do our part, and together show East Haven that through our humble medium, will someday emerge writers of great renown.

Sincerely,
YE EDITOR.

Studying an Eclipse

Astronomers go to the ends of the earth to study the sun during an eclipse because two layers of the sun can be studied only at that time. At other times these two layers, called the chromosphere and the corona, are hidden by the fierce flood of light from the radiating surface of the sun. Just outside the sun's surface is the chromosphere, a boiling ocean of red hydrogen flames, which sometimes shoot to a height of 100,000 miles. Outside of the chromosphere is the corona, a wide circle of beautiful, pearly light, composed mostly of helium and hydrogen, the two gases used on earth to inflate airships.

Diamond in Natural State

A diamond in its natural state is a dull, rounded pebble like a pellet of melted glass. It has no more brilliance than is found in tens of thousands of pebbles on the seashore. The finished diamond flashes brilliantly colored light from a multitude of facets. The secret of the scintillations is having the various faces cut in the right position and having the correct angular relations to the other faces.

Tombstone Builds Memorial to Its Tough Old Days

As a memorial to the tough old days in the eighties when Tombstone, Ariz., was the scene of some of the bloodiest gunplay in the history of the Southwest, a concrete coffin has been erected on the main street as a monument to the nameless dead who fell in front of the notorious Bird Cage theater, because they were too slow on the draw. Immortalized through Walter Noble Burns' book, "Tombstone—an Iliad of the Southwest," the town is now a mecca for tourists. The dedication ceremony is shown above.

The Spirit of Jefferson
By RAYMOND PITCAIRN
National Chairman
Sentinels of the Republic

"Since the days when Jefferson expounded his code of political philosophy, the whole world has become his pupil."

Many Americans undoubtedly recalled that tribute during the recent birthday honors to the author of our imperishable Declaration of Independence.

How well, one wonders, do those of his pupils who wield political power today, remember the teachings of the Sage of Monticello? How faithfully do they apply his principles? Let's recall—for them and for ourselves—some of the precepts that Thomas Jefferson left us as a guide. Here, in his own words, is a record of his answers to many of the problems which confront us today—

Our Constitution

"I do, with sincere zeal, wish an inviolable preservation of our present Federal Constitution according to the true sense in which it was adopted by the states."

"No Constitution was ever before so well calculated as ours for extensive empire and self-government."

Public Debt

"Taxation follows public debt, and in its train wretchedness and oppression."

Economy in Government

"I am for a government rigorously frugal and simple."

"We must make our election between economy and liberty, or profusion and servitude."

Centralization of Power

"It is not by the consolidation or centralization of powers, but by their distribution that good government is effected."

"Were we directed from Washington when to sow and when to reap, we should soon want bread."

Personal Liberty

"A wise and frugal government, which shall restrain men from injuring one another, which shall leave them otherwise free to regulate their own pursuits of industry and improvement, and shall not take from the mouth of labor the bread it has earned. This is the sum of good government."

Freedom of the Press

"Our liberty cannot be guarded but by the freedom of the press, nor that be limited without danger of losing it."

The People

"If we can prevent the government from wasting the labors of the people under the pretense of taking care of them, they must remain happy."

So long as our public men—and we, ourselves—remember those teachings, the spirit of Jefferson lives. When we forget them, that spirit dies—and with it the true spirit of America.

"King And The Chorus Girl" At Capitol

The first of the week, the Capitol presents Joan Blondell and Fernand Gravet, the new French-Belgian actor, destined to go a long way in American pictures, in "The King and the Chorus Girl," with Edward Everett Horton. It is a comedy romance concerning the lives of a deposed king and a commoner. There is plenty of music throughout the cinema and Groucho Marx (one of the Marx Bros.) is co-author of the story. The second feature is "Nancy Steele Is Missing," with Victor McLaglen. A newsreel and short fill out the program.

Due to Daylight Saving Time, which started last week, the Monday through Friday performances start at 7:15 p. m.; Saturday performances start at 6:00 p. m., and Sunday continuous from 2:15 p. m.

Grand Canal of Eastern China
The first section of the Grand canal of Eastern China was opened in 486 B. C. and from that time until A. D., 1289, when Kublai Khan finished the last stretch, the emperors of succeeding dynasties opened new parts or repaired those which had fallen into disuse. Its total length is estimated at 1,000 miles.
