

Local Schools Give $327.39 To Community Chest

High School Leads With $91.42.

It was learned through Mr. William E. Gillis, Superintendent of Schools here, and local representative for the Community Chest Drive which recently closed, that $327.39 was donated to the Chest by our local schoolchildren.

Mr. Gillis made a plea to the townspeople to donate to the Chest, but to no avail. Possibly, the statement made by Mr. Gillis that the Visiting Nurse Association here, is helped materially was overlooked, and a higher figure will materialize next year.

The various amounts donated by each school is stated as follows: High School, $91.42; Union, $56.60; Gerrish, $48.99; Highland, $37.15; Tuttle, $36.68; Laurel, $14.62; Foxon, $14.05; Momauguin, $12.27; South, $7.11; other sources, $8.50.

Momauguin Awaits Town Meeting On Fire House

MOMAGUIN NOTES

Residents of the Momauguin District are awaiting with great interest the date to be set for the Special Town Meeting for the purpose of rebuilding the Bradford Manor Hose Company quarters which were recently destroyed by fire. A petition for said purposes was presented to the Board of Selectmen on Thursday, November 18.

The Bradford Manor Ladies' Auxilliary will omit the card party this week due to the holiday. The next card party will take place at the home of Mrs. Henry Schmidt, of Coe Avenue, on Friday, December 3.

There will be a meeting of the American Unit of the Bradford Manor Ladies' Auxilliary, Friday afternoon at 2 p. m. at the home of Miss Madelyne Bixby. The committee consists of Mesdames Richard Brache, Charles Billings, William Brown, Carl Andrea, Frank Dooley, Sr., Amosah Doolittle and Burke. All members are urged to attend.

Mrs. Norman Hall entertained the Happy Hour Pinochle Club at her home on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Joseph Lipp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brache, was operated on at Grace Hospital on Saturday. Her condition is reported as favorable.

Mrs. Jennie Baylor, who died recently, was the mother of Mr. James Baylor, of Stevens St.

HOUSATONIC LEAGUE

Superintendent of Schools William E. Gillis, Mr. William E. Fagerstrom, Principal of the High School, Mr. John Maher, Director of Athletics, East Haven Schools, and Mr. Caryle Frawley, general science teacher, East Haven High School, attended the monthly meeting of the Housatonic League at Derby, last Tuesday evening, November 23.

Guest artists will include Miss Florence Guthlein, pianist; Mr. Benjamin Massman, violinist, and Mr. Harry Clarke, tenor.

31st Annual Xmas Seal Drive Opens Today

Mr. Joseph F. Adams Heads Large Committee.

Today marks the opening of the 31st Annual Christmas Seal Drive sponsored by the East Haven Visiting Nurse Association, affiliated with the Connecticut State Tuberculosis Commission. The drive will last through Christmas Day, during which time 1,000 letters will be mailed to the residents of East Haven.

Not many people realize that 85 cents of every dollar contributed for these seals remains in East Haven to help pay for home nursing of tubercular patients, hunt out unknown cases of the disease, teach how to prevent its spread to others and broadcast unceasingly facts on its prevention, detection and cure.

273 Visits

Last year, 273 visits were made by the local Visiting Nurse Association and 2,150 quarts of milk were distributed about the town.

The above facts have been stated to give one an idea of what the sale of these seals accomplish for tubercular people and the committee urges all who can to do their utmost in contributing to this great cause. Checks may be made out to Mr. Joseph F. Adams, chairman of the Drive. If you are unable to do your part in the Drive, the committee requests that you return the seals sent to you as soon as possible, as they are required to check every seal sent out.

Adams Heads Committee

With Mr. Adams as chairman, the committee is made up of members from each district as follows:

Center: Mesdames Eric Dohna, S. S. Borden, Alvin P. Sanford, Joseph F. Adams, Charles Caley, Harry Viola and Roy Burwell.

Momauguin: Mesdames Otto Bath, Frank Dooley, Jr., and Alvin Thompson.

Foxon: Miss Doris Warner and Mrs. Lyman Goodrich.

Remember that these little seals fight tuberculosis, and when you buy them you help them, continue the fine successful work that they have been doing throughout the years.

Follies Beauties Barred As Wash-day "Mechanics"

Concluded From Last Week)

Commenting on Ziegfeld's statement, Mr. Edward J. Hesse, Service Manager at the Monarch Laundry said; "Perhaps it is a new idea to some women that the laundry, in addition to relieving the home of an immense amount of worry and bother, is also a "beauty doctor" - but I believe Ziegfeld was right." Our customers tell us that they feel better without the weekly washing to slave over - and we know they look happier - yes and prettier. With our wide variety of services to suit every requirement, and with our perfected methods which protect the daintiest fabrics and the gayest colors, we are appealing to more and more home makers every day. And I like the thought, as suggested in Flo Ziegfeld's remarks, that we are contributing to beauty, as well as comfort and happiness of our community.

Mrs. E. Tower of East Long Meadow, Massachusetts, is visiting her son, Mr. Ernest Tower of Maple Street, Foxon.

The Chicken Pie Supper sponsored by the Ladies' Aid of Foxon Congregational Church was a big success.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Gillis will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Horace Baker on Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Patten of Maine and their daughter, Mrs. Irving Hunt, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chestley Patten of Foxon have returned to their home in Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fessenden of Foxon have announced the arrival of a baby boy.

Town Clerk and Mrs. C. T. Warner, of Foxon, will have as guests on Thanksgiving, (the parents of) Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Warner and their son Stanley Warner.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Bailey and their son Charles, will spend the holiday in Hartford with Mrs. Bailey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lepper.

WELL-CHILD CONFERENCE

Due to Thanksgiving Day, the regular Well-Child Conference has been postponed to Tuesday, November 30, at the Town Hall, from 2 to 4 p.m. Dr. Vincent Balletto will officiate.

One case of lobar pneumonia has been reported in town by the State Health Department.

An unusual program is being brought to East Haven by the boys of the English 4A Class, of East Haven High School, who are sponsoring an exhibition by Chief Needahbeh, of the Penobscot Indian Tribe of Old Town, Maine, at the East Haven High School Auditorium, on Monday, December 6. Plans are being made for a grade school program at 10:30 a. m. and a high school program at 1:00 p. m. Adults who are interested in attending either performance will be most welcome.

Master of Ceremonies

Needahbeh is known to many East Haveners for the past two years, as the m. c. of the Sportsman's Show at the New Haven Arena. He received his education at the Indian School on the reservation at Old Town. Realizing that the Penobscot Indians were not a part of the "wild west", and that, therefore, his tribe has been neglected by writers, and that their arts, customs, music and traditions would be lost forever, he has devoted his life to their preservation. He is now bringing this interesting study of these unwritten Indians to small children, high schools, colleges, clubs and churches.

Gives Demonstrations

Needahbah's collection of beads, hand-carved war-clubs, bows and arrows, moccasins and stone implements are used in his entertainments. In his recitals, he gives actual demonstrations of how rough shell is rubbed down, bored, and finished into a bead, and how skins are tanned, cut, and made into moccasins; he shows and uses the different types of bows and gives actual archery demonstrations on the platform, explaining the difference in the White Man's and the Indian's method of shooting.

Needahbeh has a splendid voice. His interpretation of music shows how the Indians place their tone and how they have advanced in production of tone, in song and speech. His own Tribal Spirit Songs, Medicine Songs and War Songs are stirring and delightful.

Committees for the program have been chosen as follows: general chairman, Burdett Page; Albert Beebe, Richard Joy, assistants; publicity, George Reinwald, chairman, William Thompson, Albert Beebe, Richard Joy; invitations, Thomas Eagan, chairman, Joseph Ferraiolo; Ushers, John MacLachlan, chairman, Peter Castellano, Frank Wandelur, Wesley Thompson; tickets, Albert Reed, chairman, Clifford Erickson, George Myers, Howard Hanson; faculty advisor, Miss Miriam G. May.

Chief As Guest

On Monday evening, Burdett Page, Richard Joy and George Reinwald, together with Chief Needahbeh himself were guests of Miss May at her home at 43 Sidney street. The group spent the early part of the evening planning the program, and later enjoyed an informal chat with the Chief. The boys sponsoring the program will (Continued On Page Three)

A TRAGIC ERROR

Incurable illness that strikes an individual down in the prime of life, is one of the worst tragedies of mankind. But it pales to insignificance when compared to the case of an individual who, upon finding that he is suffering from an illness which public dogma has erroneously taught him to believe is incurable, hopelessly does nothing about it.

For example, there is the young man who dropped out of college in his third year because he was not feeling quite up to par. He drifted from one job to another, and finally became convinced that he had tuberculosis. Feeling that his days were numbered anyway, he shipped out as a deckhand to see as much of the world as possible. He struggled along for two years, but the inevitable finally laid him by the heels. Only then did he discover his horrible mistake. If he had sought competent medical aid two years earlier, his illness would have been considered little more serious than an appendicitis operation. Even now medical science may pull him through, but it will be a long tough battle.

The wise individual protects himself and his family against financial contingencies with an intelligent program of life insurance. Likewise, if he is wise, he protects his health through sane living and an intelligent attitude toward medical aid and advice.

THE PEARL OF THE EAST

by Arthur L. Griffiths,
M.A., Yale

The American army and American people had a tremendous problem on their hands when peace came to the Philippines. A century-down-trodden freedom loving Aryan people became our wards.

Travel in the islands was next to impossible and communication very slow. Everywhere were the mountains or hills, all wrapped in the densest jungle on earth. The larger islands were divided up into provinces, or little states, each with its own form of government. On Luzon alone were such provinces as Abra, Ilocos Norte, Ilocos Sur, Cagayan, Zambales, Pangasinan, Camorines Norte, Camorines Sur, Rizal, Pampanga, Cavite, Mariveles, Bulacan, Laguna, Batangas, Benguet, Lepanto, Bontoc, Ifugao and Tarlac.

As well as that, there were the following races or tribes, each one speaking a different language. A journey of fifteen miles in a new straight line in inhabited territory, might bring the sojourner in three languages. These are the people on the one island of Luzon, that are in my memory at the present moment. Ilocanos, Tagalogs, Macabebes, Pampangans, Bicolos, Visayans, Pangasinanes—all Filipinos. Then, of pagan tribes, were the Kalingas, Ifugaos, Ilongots and Gaddanos, all head-hunters. Then there were the more peaceable Tinguanes, Igorrotes, Bukinons, and Negritos. And Uncle Sam set about to bring order out of that chaos and to organize a school system in such wilds. I was one of the three American pioneers who laid the foundations of that work and the only one of the three who ever returned to America. The other two, both Yale men, died as heroes out there, while I yet was in the Islands.

SUPERVISING SMALL HOME CONSTRUCTION

The insulation must be applied properly and according to the manufacturer's directions, otherwise its value as an insulator is lost. It is a part of the supervision to see that this is taken care of, in other words, see that all joints are covered in the case of roll material, that bats are placed so that there are no openings left between in the case of bat material and that all spaces and cracks are covered in the case of loose material. Where nailing is required, see that it is properly done.

In the case of quilt, see that it is properly butted or lapped, and properly nailed and that no broken spots or openings are allowed to go uncovered.

Pipes for heating or water supply in outside walls or exposed places should be covered with 3 ply air cell covering banded on, or if the pocket book affords, 4 ply air cell or 85 per cent magnesia, with the magnesia covering as the best bet.

Where it is necessary to have the main house trap on the drainage system outside of the house in a pit, as often happens where there is no cellar, insulate the trap by filling the pit with mineral wool or plain wood sawdust. If deep enough, ordinary dirt will do but this makes it too difficult to get at in case the trap needs cleaning out.

The Hat-Box

Poke Hats

Very little has been heard spoken of the little poke hat, yet it has been thought of favorably and admired much, for it is very popular.

One model shown, is designed with a high square top crown which is set on a slightly scooped poke brim. The brim, which extends from ear to ear across the front of the hat from the center headsize line to the edge of the brim, measures six inches.

The high crown slopes down the back of the neckline, hugging the shape of the head closely. Around the crown is plaited grosgrain ribbon tied in a loose knot at the back with two four-inch pointed ends.

The hostesses, members of the Hostess Club sponsored by Miss Alice M. Hall were, Elsa Pierson, Janet Barbery, Ruth Griswold, Betty Beardsley, Ruth Cooper and Marion Borrman, while the assistants were Jeanruth Anderson, Kathryn Sellwood, Marie Castellon, Janet Frey, Marv Richtelli, Eleanor Lorenzen, Betty Fosta, Ruth Schaefer, and Mildred Bennett, all members of the same group.

Immediately preceding the tea there was a short program presented by members of the Entertainers' Club. Those participating were Helen King, Marjorie Doyle, Barbara Hastings, Betty Danielson, Anne Swiatek, Genevieve Stephenson, Barbara Arnold, Betty Miller, Edward Simoni, Gloria Gallo, Laura Jane Adams, Virginia MacArthur, Thelma and Jeanruth Anderson, Fay Garvin, Pearl Bass, and Loretta Simoni. "Bill" Cowles acted as master of ceremonies, and Katherine Minter as director.

Honor Society Organized
A chapter of the National Honor Society is to be organized at the East Haven High School, to which students will be elected on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Mr. William Fagerstrom has appointed the following faculty committee to work on the by-laws: Miss Zita Matthew, Miss Alice Gunnip, and Mr. Albert Knox.

Broadcast
Presentation of the regular monthly radio broadcast of the East Haven High School Dramatic Clubs, originally scheduled for Thursday, November 18, at 3:30 P. M., was postponed until Tuesday, November 23, at 2:30 P. M., due to the broadcast of the speeches from the Governor's Conference on Thursday. Miss Mar-

Miss Shirley Lundin of French Avenue, was the winner of the first prize in the speaking contest held in the high school auditorium, last Tuesday evening. Miss Lundin was the recipient of a bronze medal for stage presence, relaxation and good diction, receiving a 91 points out of a 100.

Second and third prize (also bronze medals) were taken by Miss Marjorie Thompson and Miss Pearl Winsont.

JEFF FIVE TO MEET ANSONIA SUNDAY

E. H. H. S. Announce Schedule

By Eddie Munson, Sports Editor

The East Haven Jeff Big Five will play the first game of a schedule, listing some of the best basketball teams in the state on Sunday evening in the high school gym. The Jeffs usher in their 1937-38 season by opposing the Ansonia Blue Devils, four times winner of the Valley League championship, in what looks to be one of the most exciting contests on the home team's schedule.

Last year the Jeff quintet compiled a marvelous record by beating the cream of the state semi-pro crop. This year's squad is made up of the same array of hoopsters that made the 1936-37 team rise to heights. The Ansonia Blue Devils merit ranking as one of the best teams in the state, also as their four Valley League championships prove.

Jeff Girls

The Jeff Girls, greater New Haven champs, will engage the Shelton Olympic Girls in the preliminary match which will get underway at 7:45. The East Haven Club is piloted by Nellie Orzechowski while Tommy Boyko captains the Shelton five.

"Pickels" Richards of the Central Refereeing Board will referee the two games.

The line-up for the main fray is as follows:

Jeff Big Five	Ansonia Blue Devils
F. Iwanski, Bob Lindun	C. Sepkaski
Right Forward
S. Soco	H. Kelly
Left Forward
J. Sheehan, J. Pyrdol	L. Fair
Center
M. Swirsky, S. Bowler
Right Guard	H. Stocking, J. Mustanti
E. Sheehan, Cy Zavorskas
Left Guard	M. Pawchlyk, P. Gladis

E. H. H. S. to Play Congos

On December 17, the East Haven Varsity five and the Congo Unlimited team will tangle in the first of a proposed series of games to determine the championship of East Haven. In addition to the main contest there will be a jayvee game.

In this game as in all other high school games the preliminary match will go on at 7 o'clock sharp with the varsity taking the floor at 8. The high school schedule is as follows:

Friday, December 3, Alumni-Home; Tuesday, December 7, Guilford-Away; Friday, December 10, Fishers Island-Home; Tuesday, December 14, Shelton-Away*; Tuesday, December 21, Wallingford-Home*; Tuesday, January 4, Shelton-Home*; Friday, January 7, Derby-Away*; Tuesday, January 11, Branford-Home*; Friday, January 14, Stratford-Away*; Tuesday, January 18, Madison-Away; Friday, January 21, Seymour-Home*; Saturday, January 22, Milford-Away*; Tuesday, January 25, Hamden-Away; Friday, January 28, Commercial-Home; Tuesday, February 1, Branford-Away*; Friday, February 4, Stratford-Home*; Friday, February 11, Seymour-Away*; Saturday, February 12, Milford-Home*; Tuesday, February 15, Hamden-Home; Friday, February 18, Wallingford-Away*; Friday, February 25, Derby-Home*.

*Housatonic League games.

Cubs End Season

Last Sunday, November 21, the East Haven Cubs concluded their 1938 season in the hardest fought contest on their schedule. The Cubs defeated the West End eleven by the score of 18-12, this bringing their unbroken string of victories to nine.

Both teams played hard, stubborn ball with neither side gaining a foot without a struggle.

The three Cub touchdowns were scored on passes thrown by Pashynski and received by Grasso. DeFilippo and Slavo tallied the two West End scores.

Intra-Murals Resumed

The high school intra-mural program has been discontinued for the present, but its resumption is looked for in the near future.

The noon hour games were stopped because students were returning late for classes. A new play is now in the making which is hoped will meet with the approval of both the faculty and the student body.

Deanna Durbin Plays Capitol

"Bing" Crosby and Martha Raye will be seen in the usual Crosby musical, in "Double Or Nothing" with Andy Devine and Mary Carlisle, the current feature at the Capitol for today and tomorrow. "Windjammer," with George O'Brien is the co-feature and Bank Night will be held on Saturday.

Lovely Deanna Durbin, lovable star of "Three Smart Girls," returns to the Capitol screen on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, in "100 Men and a Girl," with Leopold Stokowski and his orchestra, Adolphe Menjou, Alice Brady and Mischa Auer. As an added treat, Warner Oland and Joan Marsh will be featured in "Chan On Broadway."

On Wednesday and Thursday, Warner Baxter and Joan Bennett will be seen in Walter Wanger's "Vogues of 1938," with Helen Vinson, Mischa Auer and Alan Mowbray. This picture was produced entirely in color. The second picture will be "Sophie Lang Goes West" with Gertrude Michael and Larry Crabbe, with Ladies' Gift Night featured both evenings.

Lincoln Presents Molly Picon

"Yiddle with his fiddle", playing through Monday at the Lincoln Theatre is a most amusing musical starring the famous Yiddish star, Molly Picon. English titles make the story, simple enough to be told in the star's expressive pantomime. It is a Polish film, made in Warsaw, with quaint villages and picturesque farming scenery as background, with Miss Picon playing the violin and singing as a young vagabond. Starting Tuesday, for a week, a screen version of Maxim Corky's famous play "Lower Depths" will be shown.

A special program for children will be shown on Friday and Saturday, November 26 and 27, at 10 and 11:30, a. m., the program including Malcolm, the magical clown, star clown of Ringling Bros. Circus, as well as Mickey Mouse, Popeye and other favorites, on the screen. On Sunday, December 5, Uncle Don will appear in person at three performances to be given at 2:00, 3:30, and 5.00, p.m, this includes short subjects on the screen.
