E. H. Town Committees Recommend Full-Time Fireman And Bunker

Appointments Will Be Made By Board of Public Safety Following Action Of The Board of Finance In Approving Funds.

Two Sengrave pumps for Bradford Manor No. 4 and the Center Company No. 1 have arrived. It was necessary for the apparatus to submit to an underwriter's test before being delivered to East Haven.

The machines did an excellent job under difficult tests at Lake Saltonstall, and are being temporarily housed in the fire house Co. 7 in New Haven.

The central building is almost ready for plastering and the large automatic doors were completely installed this week.

At Bradford Manor progress has reached the point where the name is being placed in metal above the two automatic doors.

Appointment of Augustus Mer-will as fireman, and Julius Korn as bunker-man in the East Haven Fire Department has been recommended by the Republican town committee. Appointments will be made by the Board of Public Safety in the near future, following the action of the Board of Finance in approving funds for augmenting the fire service personnel.

The plans call for the naming of a full-time fireman and a so-called bunker-man, the latter to sleep at the fire house at night to be ready to respond to calls. The appointment will take effect upon the completion of the new fire headquarters and the Bradford Manor Fire House in the spring.

Announcement that the Republican town committee has recommended two names for appointment to the Fire Department, brought an open letter from the Democratic town committee to the Board of Public Safety, the body which will make the appointments.

Music Festival Secures Famous N. Y. Symphony

This great artistic summer event having completely outgrown the grounds of the Silvermine Guild Music Festival Association, was obliged to seek more ample facilities for their ever grown musical activities, and through the generosity and courtesy of Dr. DeWitt Wadsworth, a prominent resident of Norwalk, the Silvermine Guild Music Festival Association were able to make definite plans for the 1939 season.

Dr. Wadsworth's picturesque 800 acre estate is only a short distance from the Silvermine Guild Grounds situated in Norwalk, and at a meeting of the Board of Managers held at the Silvermine Tavern, plans were definitely formulated whereby the members of the Silver-mine Guild of Artists and its affiliated Music Festival Association will again transform acres of the rugged Connecticut countryside into a garden for the muses where during the latter part of August they will present the third annual Sil-vermine Guild Music Festival.

Following the enthusiastic approval of plans for the Festival by members of the Association, Mrs.
Alma Simpson Chandler, Festival president, announced that contracts had been signed with the New York Philharmonic Symphony Society for the orchestra and that contracts will be signed this week with the artists and conductors.

The New York Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra will again head the list of attractions and the schedule of events will again this year comprise "twelve master musical and art events."

PLANS BENEFIT DANCE
The Branford Battery will hold a modern and old fashioned dance in the Armory tomorrow night for the benefit of the battery mess fund.
An excellent orchestra has been engaged and "Bud" Smith will prompt for the old fashioned numbers.

Bigelow Boy Has Strange Disease Of Hemophilia

Formation of Blood Donors Society In Branford Is Discouraged By Those "In the Know"

Kenneth Sawyer Bigelow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvyn Bigelow, one of the Bigelow twins, is a patient in the New Haven Hospital where several blood transfusions were necessary when the four and one half year old had had a tooth pulled.

Young Kenneth, is an innocent victim of hemophilia, one of nature's most rare and yet most tenacious and deadly maladies. Over a period of two years the chap has had about 30 blood transfusions.
The disease is characterized by a tendency to profuse and uncontrollable hemorrhage from the slightest wounds.

From this strange case there arose in town a voluntary group of persons who approached the Review to investigate the advisability of sponsoring a Blood Donors Society should the plans be practical.

The idea was that volunteers be on call when anyone in Branford required the services of a donor.
Authorities, when approached this week considered the formation of such a society a worthy project but advised that action be delayed for the present because doctors and hospitals have under consideration a newer and what appears to be a simpler method which has already passed the experimental stage.

RETIRING PASTOR

REV. CHARLES R. COOLEY

Rev. C. R. Cooley Retires For New Pastorate

Rev. Charles R. Cooley occupied the pulpit of the First Congregational Church for the last time at the services Sunday morning. An unusually large congregation attended the services as a farewell gesture to Mr. Cooley, who will assume at once his duties as pastor of the First Congregational Church in Meriden.

Mr. Cooley came to Branford five years ago last summer from Durham, where he had served as pastor of the Congregational Church.
During his tenure in Branford he and Mrs. Cooley endeared themselves to the congregation and to the town at large. Both he and Mrs.
Cooley will take with them the sincere good wishes of the entire community.

An increase of 140 in the membership is largely attributed to his efforts, and he has also been very successful in his work among the young people.

Mr. Cooley has also taken a very active part in the life of the community. He is president of the Rotary Club, a member of Widow's Son Lodge A. F. and A. M., of Branford Grange, president of the Congregational Club of New Haven and has been actively interested in many civic movements.

Dr. Levy To Move Into New Home

Dr. Nathan Levy, who had his office situated for many years at Main Street, is moving into his new home and office on Montwese Street very shortly.

His new office, which is considered one of the best in this vicinity is to be equipped with newest and most modern of equipment including an up-to-date x-ray machine.

Dr. Levy expects to be settled in his new location by the end of the week or the early part of the coming week.

Innovation For Fifth Concert

In tune with the times, the combined New Haven Symphony Orchestra and Civic Orchestra plans a musical innovation, an original and refreshing experiment in enjoyment, for its Fifth Concert of the season next Monday evening, February 6th, at Woolsey Hall.

Breaking the regular routine of symphonic programs and individual artists as soloists, the Orchestra will join with the Yale Glee Club for an interesting evening of combination instrumental and vocal music.
This will be the first time in the musical history of New Haven and probably of the entire United States, that a symphony glee club has presented a university glee club as assistant artist and, in reverse, that a university glee club has been honored by a complete symphony orchestra as accompanist.

Unusual as this Concert will be in form, it will represent no relaxation from the high standard of

Branford Grand List Set By Assessors At Over Twelve Million

After Difficult Task The Board Has Prepared An Abstract Showing Taxable Property For 1938—Board Of Relief Meets.

Poor Response From Pres. Ball Mailing List

Reports indicate that the President's Ball at the Armory Saturday evening was a social success, that the music was the best ever and a good time was had by all.

Financially, Branford will let the remainder of the county provide for the care of infantile paralysis victims.

Arthur F. Merrill, has this to say:
"Despite the fact that dozens of our people contributed generously to the humanitarian appeal for funds to fight infantile paralysis the 1938 Presidential Birthday Ball at the Armory cannot be termed an unqualified success. We used a mailing list based largely on that of the Voluntary Firemen's Dance Committee. However, the type of appeal behind the infantile paralysis drive did not seem to have the pull, locally, enjoyed by the fire rallies.
This, I presume, is understandable when one considers the proximity of property interest and the remoteness, to the average citizen, of an infantile paralysis victim."

The Board of Assessors have completed the abstract for the 1938 grand list, showing taxable property in the amount of $12,037,000. This is an increase of approximately 100,000 over the previous year when the figure was placed at $12,648,487.
The amount has absorbed such damages as was allowed due to the hurricane of last September. Preparing the grand list for 1938 was a task fraught with many difficulties, due to the necessity for analyzing such damage claims as presented and separating the determined items of maintenance and repairs, replacement damage and improvements beyond the limit of damage sustained.

In all cases it was borne in mind that the majority of taxpayers should not be asked to assume an excessive burden by reason of largely-increased taxes due to storm damages. Through the large majority of taxpayers have been relieved of excessive burden and the storm loss borne by those particularly concerned, any increase in taxes is largely represented by the higher budgeting requirements of the town for new buildings and bridges.

The Board of Relief will meet in the town hall to act upon appeals from the doings of assessors until they have completed their duties or until the last business day of the month, but claims will be received until the 20th.

Edward R. DeJon Talks To Rotary

Edward R. DeJon of Rockland Park, Short Beach, medical supervisor of the Southern New England Telephone Company and a former member of the Branford Board of Education, was the speaker at the weekly meeting of the Branford Rotary Club held Monday noon in the parlors of the Congregational Church. Mr. DeJon's topic was "Industrial Aspects of Preventive Medicine."

Thirty-six Rotarians attended the meeting, including visiting Rotarians Edward S. Russell of New Haven and Fred H. Holbrook of the Clinton-Madison-Guilford club.

College Closing Would Influence Branford Girls

Students and parents of students friends and graduates of New Haven State Teachers' College are securing hundreds of signatures on a petition against proposed closing of the college.

Several young women in this vicinity are now attending.
A committee of Parents circular reads in part, "If students of southern Connecticut were forced to go to teachers college farther removed from home and would therefore be called upon to spend considerably more money for dormitory fees, the economic factor would play a large part in the selection of candidates for admission. Students entering a teachers college should be selected on intellectual ability and personal fitness rather than on financial backing. When the economic factor enters the admission plan of any teachers college the general ability level of the student body will tend to be lowered. It would seem therefore that Connecticut would lower the quality of students in teachers colleges should students be forced to live away from home and pay room and board.
This does not imply that students from the higher economic bracket do not have intellectual capacity.
It does mean that intellectual capacity is not limited to that bracket but extends into the lower economic levels as well."

Branford Asks Sum Of $123,298 For New School

Nine projects for which the assistant of the WPA was asked by towns in this district were listed for that agency at a session of the U.
S. Senate. The requests were before the Senate to aid in determining if further appropriations would be made for the WPA. The projects include some which had been approved, but for which no funds were available, some which had not been fully investigated and others which had been rejected because of doubt of the town's ability to meet some of the legal requirements.

Included in the list is a request from Branford for $123,298 for a school to cost $273,005.

Many boys and girls have a hobby; nearly all like to belong to a club or society. They like the idea of a group to which everyone cannot belong; have a motto or a name made up of initials, which they use, as members, know the meaning.

Perhaps father or mother belongs to a club or society. There are large organizations like Rotary, Parent-Teacher Associations or Kiwanis or a local two table bridge club.

Junior high and senior high schools plan club programs to give students an opportunity to join such a club or group. But, since the club is a part of the school program, it helps young people learn new skills, to develop initiative, to do something that will be of use or enjoyment to themselves and the people around them.

THE INSTRUTABLE ATOM

When Lippeshey invented the telescope, combining two lenses, one convex and the other concave, he made possible the extended vision of mankind beyond the Milky Way, where our sun is a tiny star, to things 500,000,000 light-years away. Similarly, Leeuwenhoek and his primitive microscope penetrating the world of the infinitesimal, opened the way for today's showing of the electron-microscope, 1000 times more powerful than the best compound microscope. It can reach as far into an infinitesimally tiny universe as modern telescopes can penetrate the void of space between star-galaxies.

V. K. Zvyorkin, in his showing at Richmond of this new device, disclosed how physicists use a beam of electrons produced in a cathode ray tube instead of light. The electrons are reflected from the object to be studied and pass through a powerful magnetic field which bends the beam in somewhat the same way a lens bends light. The electron beam, however, is invisible and must be changed by focusing on a flat glass plate coated with fluorescent chemicals. These transform the ultra-short wavelengths of light into longer, visible ones.

Various models of the electron-microscope have been made in Europe and America following the discovery in pure physics two years ago by Dr. C. J. Davisson and Dr. L. H. Germer of the Bell Laboratories that electrons have a dual personality, possessing the characteristics of both waves and particles. Proof of the wave quality gave researchers needed impetus to go ahead with further work on the microscope. Does this mean atoms will be rendered visible? Probably this goal will never be reached, for while magnifications now make it possible for men to study things as small as a wavelength of visible light, efforts to go below this limit are likely to fail. Objects can be studied only by the waves of energy which they reflect. There is much work yet to be done, but some day electron-optics may do as much for the telescopes as it has for microscopes.—Christian Science Monitor.

AGAINST SYPHILIS

Issuing the cry, "Guard Against Syphilis" the slogan for the 1939 campaign to eliminate this disease, the State Department of Health in the current issue of its weekly bulletin reminds the citizens of Connecticut that success in this vital campaign for the health and happiness of American homes can come only through the concerted effort of a public aware of the problem and the steps necessary for its control.

Citing the gains made in this field since First National Social Hygiene Day in 1937, the bulletin states that future advances depend upon individual and community efforts to see that information available for its treatment and care are available to all.

Assistance in the form of speakers, instructive films and literature will be given upon request to the local health officer, the County Medical Society or the State Department of Health.

Suggested aspects of the problem to be considered are as follows: (1) facts about the disease, its prevention and cure; (2) facilities available, both state and local, for finding and bringing under treatment cases of syphilis; (3) the local problem of quackery with a view to exposing its retarding influences; (4) the status of prostitution in the community; (5) efforts made at sex education.

"LAND POOR"

Ulele Sam is beginning to wonder if he is not becoming "land poor." Owning 20 per cent of the land in the United States, or some 605,000 square miles, worth at most $4,750,000,000 including improvements, he is way out in front of all other "landed gentry." His holdings cover more ground than the combined area of 20 states: Alabama, Arkansas, Connecticut, Delaware, Massachusetts, Maryland, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Rhode Island, Vermont, West Virginia, Florida, Georgia, Indiana, Kentucky, Maine, Pennsylvania, Ohio, New York and Wisconsin. The holdings vary from state to state, running as high as 82 per cent of Nevada's 110,600 square miles to less than one-tenth of 1 per cent of Iowa's 56,147 square miles. These statistics give the reason why President Roosevelt recently appointed a Federal Real Estate Board to coordinate the government's land activities and to attempt to dispose of surplus holdings.

JOHN BARLEYCORN

"CO-RESPONDENT"

Divorces reached an all time high in Chicago during the first year just ended, statistics compiled by two University of Chicago social scientists indicate. Divorce records since the return of legal liquor show a large percentage—in some cities more than one-half—of the marriages that go on the rocks were brooked because of drink. Widespread drinking since repeal has brought an alarming increase in the number of divorces in which Old John Barleycorn is named as "co-respondent."

WHERE "WORKERS" RULE

(From the Buffalo, N. Y., Courier)

Soviet Russia is a country where the "workers" are supposed to rule. No capitalist exploitation there; no laissez-faire or gridding of the faces of the proletariat.

And, if the Russian workers don't like the new regime, requiring them to work faster and longer for their present normal wage, and putting a premium on quantity rather than quality, what can they do about it? If they grumble, they will be making reservations in a concentration camp; and, if they try to strike, they will be making appointments with firing squads.

WE HAVE SOMETHING HERE

This money's worth is what every consumer seeks when he goes to market. That means, of course, he is out to get the greatest value for what he paid. This is not alone in terms of price, but also of quality. Since most Americans are workers, it really boils down to the individual chaffering for the most favorable exchange of work for food, clothing, and other necessities, and, perhaps, a few luxuries.

ECONOMY COMES BACK

(From the Washington, D. C., Star)

Campaign promises of economy and efficiency in Government are not always made to be kept. There is real news, therefore, in the economy word which seems to be sweeping through many States in the wake of new gubernatorial regimes.

A new cooperative newspaper has made its appearance. Called the "Organized Consumer" it is a publication printed for and by consumers. A publications committee composed of a majority of the consumers' cooperatives of the New York City metropolitan area "happily believe that there is a genuine need for a publication of this type—which will fight for consumers' interests."

The Capital's unofficial side-line "old-you-so" lining. Weeks before Congress convened when word first began to leak out that the strategists were going to wheel National defense into the legislative spotlight, these observers began making predictions on just why and what the defense program would embrace. It would include, they speculated, just about every pet project that could, by the farthest stretch of imagination, be pieced into a defense requirement.

First to be dropped gently into this classification was part of WPA Other lesser bills have followed which they have detected the master stroke, to wit: revival of two of the largest and most noteworthy of these is the "Cooperative Builder," a weekly published in Superior, Wisconsin.

In addition, several thousand small papers make their appearance from time to time. These are usually issued by individual cooperative societies for their membership. Many of the farm marketing and purchasing cooperatives also issue regular publications to their members. All in all quite a little co-op literature is distributed.

Another power project, this one privately owned, is in a delicate situation, incidentally. It is TVA, which is finding it difficult to satisfy the Comptroller General on a little matter of standards for ice cream. The Comptroller says he hasn't been able to get an intelligent answer as to why it was necessary to spend six million dollars on strawberry patches, a freezing plant, a strawberry marketing board, a dairy herd and other incidents on the TVA project.

While this tussle goes on, a three-sided scrap is on in another part of the Capital City. Participants are the Treasury and Justice Departments and the Intelligence Corps of the Army and Navy. The bone of contention is the business of rounding up spies.

The Department of Justice and the Treasury Secret Service branch are at odds over which should conduct spy trials and thus get the public's nod of approval and all the attendant publicity. While each department has its own reasons for wanting to see all the fanfare of publicity that can be had, the Treasury has stopped. It believes publicity hinders their work of trailing down spies. They contend the spies recent capture, some six million dollars, has caused the "big shots" to go into hiding until the final battle.

The city fathers in the National Capital (the District of Columbia Commissioners) are learning a lesson that the rest of the nation already knows. They say they don't read about it in the daily press, but the independent store owners and the chain stores are heavy advertisers in the newspaper medium. If newspapers gave the space to the independent store owners, they would be able to get the public opinion which would be invited to compete.

East Haven High Cagers In Milford Tomorrow; In Hamden Tuesday

Maherim To Play Two Games Away From Home, One A League Battle And The Other A Non-League Title—Last Place East Haven Team Expect To Climb Back Into Win Column

The East Haven Blue and Gold hoopers who are holding down last place in the Housatonic League standing, will try hard to get back into their winning ways by hoping to knock off Milford tomorrow night. Next Tuesday Coach Johnny Maher's combine will meet Hamden in an afternoon battle at the Hamden high gym.

Ramblers Upset Malleable Iron In League Battle

THROUGH THE HOOP WITH JOSEPH M. ZAFFINO

By a sudden burst of championship form at the beginning of the second half of play, the fighting Ramblers quit overtook and passed a powerful M I F outfit to win by a final count of 22 to 22 in a thrilling Community League game Sunday afternoon at the Community House.

Waltonford continues to ride the crest of the victory wave, with 13 wins and no defeats. But the surprise team of the past week has been Milford's own crackville rival, Stratford, which not only topped the Ramblers and Derby, but did so with ridiculous ease and bids fair to continue to rise in the league standings.

Branford Hornets Play Two Games Away; Derby Friday; Milford Tuesday

Local High Basketeers Meet Derby Tomorrow Night At The Upstate Court And Then Next Tuesday Evening Take On Milford In A Return Game At The Latter's Home Court Floor

Coach John Knecht's Branford high school hoopers will travel to the road tomorrow and Tuesday. Tomorrow night they will invade the town of Derby for a contest that should prove interesting. That Tuesday night they will be at Milford for their second game series of the season. Both these games are Housatonic Valley League tilts.

Branford Sextet To Clash With Southington Club

Although hampered by a strong wind and low temperatures, Branford's and Lewis High's hockey teams put on a fast scrappy game Sunday afternoon at the Community House. The game was played on the new rink at the Mill Pond. Lewis High, Class C Champions in 1938, scored first when they beat Branford on a short high drive in the first period. Branford kept the puck in Lewis' territory and scored a goal in the second period. A goal of the other half scored a field goal or assisted in one. In fact the Branford boys have begun to play better ball and it would not be at all surprising if they did edge out Milford.

In their first meeting Derby beat East Haven, but it may be a different story this time. Milford will have a showdown with Stratford at 7:30 and will entertain a large crowd. Although Hamden has defeated Branford in a previous meeting, the Branford boys are determined to triumph over the Maherim, but will encounter a much more strenuous foe. No scoring. East Haven team of other years and may have to do their utmost to hold down the high scoring DePillo and Gagliardi. East Haven is gunning for a victory and this may be it.

Shirt Factory Fall Victims Of Red Men

Led by the spectacular playing of Sal Acelo, Red Men center, who enjoyed a great field day scoring 15 baskets and one foul for a total of 31 points as his Red Men trounced the inexperienced Shirt Factory five 44 to 20 Sunday afternoon in the Community Council league.

The outstanding players on the Shirt Shop team were Les Artokly, an alert and smart player of the court, who scored on seven points, and the other, Branford, who tallied up six markers, and Sieminski, who scored six pointers and Galdenzi swished the nets for five tallies.

Weter Barbers Take First Place Beating Pointers

The Weter Barbers basketeers, pounded out 20 baskets for a total of 40 points to defeat the strong and highly-rated Branford Point team in the Community Council league play last Sunday afternoon before a capacity crowd in the Community House.

The 40 to 20 win put the Barber boys in the "no defeat" record and the loss put the Pointers down into second place in the league standings. Torretto and B. Naino stole the show for tiebreaker leaders, totaling up 20 points together. For the losers, F. Lipkovich and W. Lipkovich starred scoring 16 points between them.

The Branford Point combine staged a valiant uphill fight against the Weter Barbers, but in the end the more superior and more experienced Barbers, and at one time had the lead over the Barbers, but faded in the last quarter and the Weter Barbers coasted to victory.

Summary: Weter Barber Shop G F Pts. Perrelli lf 0 0 0, B. Naino rf 2 0 4, Artokly c 2 3 7, Branford lg 2 2 6, Galdenzi rg 1 5 9, Swinsky lg 1 0 2, Tobin lf 1 0 2, Sieminski rg 1 0 2, Totals 20 4 40.

Local High Lose Close One And Win One In Week End Battles

Loss Housatonic League Battle To Strong Lyman Hall Team Of Wallingford On Saturday Night Before Howling Crowd, And Beat Milford High Here Tuesday Night To Get Back In Win Column

Coach Johnny Knecht's Hornets ran into a snag last Saturday evening when they encountered a tough Lyman Hall team which handed them a third setback this year, by beating them 33 to 24. Tuesday evening they met Milford in a game which they won 21 to 16.

The Milford high school combine went down to defeat Tuesday evening in the local arena before a powerful rejuvenated Branford high school team that looked competent to hang the Indian sign on the wall of the local arena in the Valley Valley. The final score was 33 to 20, not so close because of some foul balls by the Branford boys.

Jeffs Will Present One Of The Strongest Lineups In Invading St. Michael's Hall For Battle With Connecticut Blues—Defeat New Haven Community Club By 41 To 37 Score Sunday

THE MOVIE GUYED

HOT TIP FOR THE WEEK:

If one were to judge by the letters which flooded the studios of 20th Century Fox, Jesse James must have had a lot of bosom friends and they're all still alive.

Ever since the studio announced they were going to make "Jesse James" a technical advisor on playing for a 3rd sensational week at Loew's Poll College Theatre, the mail man has been delivering from 80 to 100 letters daily to Darryl F. Zanuck. And still they come!

Most of the writers wanted to serve as technical advisors. Two claimed to have ridden with Jesse as members of the James gang. One says that he helped bury Jesse. Any number claimed that they were neighbors for years. But one out-did them all. He said he was Jesse James.

Mr. Zanuck saw to it that all their letters were answered and their offers kindly refused. He explained that they couldn't all act as technical advisors and besides, he had a technical advisor.

Tyrone Power, Henry Fonda, Nancy Kelley, and Randolph Scott are starred in "Jesse James" which is held over for a 3rd sensational week by popular demand. The cast also includes Henry Hull, Sigmund Summerwell, J. Edward Bromberg, Briar Donlevy, John Carradine, Donald Meek, John Russell, and Jane Darwell.

The 2nd big feature on this splendid hold over program is "Vacation From Love" with Dennis O'Keefe, Florence Rice, Reginald Owen, and June Knight.

WATCH FOR COMING HITS:
 "Gunga Din" with Victor McLaglen, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. and Cary Grant..... "Tarnished Angel" with Sally Eilers and Leo Bowman..... "4 Girls in White" with Florence Rice, Una Merkel, Mary Howard, and Ann Rutherford.....

Meanderings of a Book Worm

Junior saw this week's picture in the Branford Theatre and came home asking what he would have to do to be appointed to Annapolis or West Point. That is no easy matter so my good husband suggested Junior read, "Annapolis Today" by Kendall Banning.

So this evening Junior has his feet on my new Christmas pillow reading. For almost a hundred years the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis has trained the commissioned officers of our navy. This book offers a fully rounded picture of life at the Naval Academy. The career of the typical midshipman is closely followed at every stage from the exciting day when the plebe is sworn in to that proud moment four years later when he receives his commission.

Ted Sr., has been home for two days. Not too much work at the office so he said he guessed he'd play lazy for a day or two.

"Stars to Windward" by Bruce and Sheridan Fahnestock. "Alone" by Richard E. Byrd and "The Roll of the World" by Dick Hallet takes his exploits lightly and describes them wittily. Ted says his style may be termed quick-footed and vigorous. The author has done what most men dream of doing. He has had fun. Reading his reminiscences is the next best thing to living his life.

Patty is chairman of one of her club's entertainment committees which has scheduled a social in the Community House sometime in March.

There is a book "All About Parties" by Nina Kaye she intends to read. It contains chapters on games and stunts, square dances and scavenger hunts.

"Popular Entertainment Through the Ages" may give her an idea for a more elaborate program. Samuel McKechnie is the author and some of the color prints are from the Bertram W. Mills collection.

While looking in the library for those books our lovely daughter chanced upon Beatrice Pierce's "The Young Hostess." Beatrice Pierce wrote "It's More Fun When You Know the Rules."

The newer book is the first authoritative guide for directing the teen age girl in formal and informal entertainment. Based on consideration and unselfishness the suggestions to be found here are guaranteed to make one friend or many happier and more comfortable. It is possible that "The Young Hostess" may become to Juniors what Emily Post is to their seniors.

As for me—Need I say that with Ted, Sr. home all I've been doing is cooking and picking up after him!

"The Standard Opera" and "Concert Guide" by George F. Upton and Felix Borowski I shall suggest to the music club. That, and "Music in American Life" a new and valuable survey in the community, employing the findings of the nation-wide research of the National Recreation Association.

This book is the result of Mr. Augustus Zanzig's exhaustive study of music conditions throughout the country, under the auspices of the National Recreation Association.

Hygiene Books Available To P.T.A. Members

National Social Hygiene Day, was observed throughout America yesterday, a day of coming together to study our problem anew and plan for its solution.

Much is being accomplished by Parent Teacher Associations in the field of Social Hygiene, by helping to inform parents through intelligence and knowledge, to guide their boys and girls and safeguard their future mental, physical and spiritual happiness, by training them for healthful, interesting, wholesome use of leisure time, to cultivate high emotional tastes and ideals, helping to control and direct their emotions, impulses, energies, thoughts and actions into wholesome channels, to have the right behavior pattern in every environment, to stimulate interest in improving family relationships, by correcting community conditions that threaten the health and welfare of young people, by supporting adequate voluntary and official health programs, national, state and local, to encourage good laws and the observance of them.

Many Social Hygiene books are available. Book reports are given at regular meetings.

Further information may be obtained from Mrs. William J. Kennedy, P. O. Box 242, Short Beach, Conn. State chairman of Social Hygiene, The Parent Teacher Association of Connecticut, Inc.

Town Committees

The open letter suggests that Fire Chief Ernest Hansen, now employed on a part time basis, be put on full time. The letter follows in part:

"In the summer of 1937 the N. E. Insurance Exchange made a complete survey of the conditions pertaining to the fire protection of the town of East Haven. They inspected all the fire houses and apparatus and made certain recommendations which were for the benefit of the people of the town. The principal recommendations were the building of a new fire house, the purchase of new apparatus and the appointment of a full time chief.

"The fire house is now in process of construction, the apparatus has been provided for and in our opinion the other principal recommendation, viz: the appointment of a full time chief should be fulfilled. It has been brought to our attention that instructions have been issued to members of your board for the appointment of a driver at an annual salary of $1,825 which we believe is not at this time fulfilling the principal recommendation of the underwriters and will not result in the desired benefits to the townspeople. We believe that the appointment of a full time chief, whose duties will embrace the driving assignment will fully comply with the required recommendation and conform with the practices now in effect in nearby localities; one in particular the Fairmont association.

"It would be our suggestion, therefore, that the present chief, Ernest Hansen, be assigned the position of combined full time chief and driver at an annual salary of $1,825. He now receives as part time chief an annual salary of $400 and the appointment of a driver at an annual salary of $1,825, as certain members of your board were instructed to carry out would result in a total cost of $2,225.

"Our conclusions in this matter have been arrived at by giving full consideration to the ability and fitness of the present chief, Mr. Hansen, who has been with the department for the past 30 years and has served in the capacity of fireman captain for the past several years has been chief."

The communication is signed by the executive committee of the town committee, composed of J. V. Simoni, Russell A. McGulgan, T. Frank Reynolds, Dr. C. F. Donadio, Judge Arthur T. Connor and John T. O'Brien both recommendations were tabled at Tuesday night's meeting of the board, however the Board of Public Safety voted to appoint William Dion as full-time fireman for the Bradford Manor fire company. Mr. Dion who has been captain of the Bradford Manor company on a volunteer basis for some time, begins work this week as the new pumper has already arrived for the fire department. Lou Herling, also well known member of the Bradford Manor company was at the same time appointed by the board to be bunkerman at the shore fire house to sleep in the quarters at night and direct response to fires at that time.

Executive Board Enjoys Luncheon

Bowman, Mrs. F. T. Cahlin, Mrs. James Cobey, Mrs. Wallace H. Foote, Mrs. Scott W. Gilbert, Mrs. S. A. Griswold, Mrs. V. T. Hammer, Mrs. V. T. Hammer, Jr., Mrs. Aiden J. Hill, Mrs. C. B. Hitchcock, Miss Corene Kenyon, Mrs. Norman V. Lamb, Mrs. F. L. Lowe, Mrs. John McCabe, Mrs. Thomas F. Paradise, Mrs. J. Wesson Phelps, Mrs. J. B. Smith, Mrs. M. D. Stanley, Mrs. Frank W. Stone and Mrs. R. Earle Beers.

The luncheon was followed by the first meeting of the year of the board. Reports were read by the chairman of all committees. Announcement was made made of a course of lectures for Garden Club members in the YWCA March 22, 29 and April 5. The subject will be "Trees, Flower Arrangement and Small Gardens." A nominal fee will be charged for this course.

State Nurses To Give New Law Careful Thought

For some years the Connecticut State Nurses' Association has been giving careful thought to the question as to whether or not Connecticut should have a law which says that all who nurse the sick for hire should be licensed. Until this year it has not seemed advisable to favor such a bill; now in view of the fact that at the 1938 legislature in New York State a bill was enacted which requires the licensing of all who nurse the sick for hire, and as a similar bill has been introduced in the Massachusetts legislature, and as Pennsylvania and Rhode Island and New Jersey are considering such a bill, it is believed that it is desirable for Connecticut to do likewise; otherwise, our state may become the mecca for those persons who are unable to receive licenses to practice nursing in New York or other nearby states.

After a careful study of this situation, the Connecticut State Nurses' Association has introduced a bill into the 1939 legislature, House Bill 606, recommending that all who nurse the sick for compensation shall be licensed either as a registered nurse, or as a trained attendant.
