

Did You Know You Can Get Civil/Family Case Notices and Case Updates Electronically?

DON'T WAIT FOR PAPER IN THE MAIL.

You can receive official court notices (JDNOs) in your inbox by signing up for E-Services and requesting electronic access to your case for FREE!

Receive JDNOs in your inbox such as:

- Trial, hearing, pretrial, status conference and mediation notices,
- Court order notices (may be referred to as SCRAM notices),
- Docket number assignment notices,
- Transfer notices, and
- Docket number change notices.

Go to: [https://jud.ct.gov/external/super/E-Services/efile/ Judicial Branch](https://jud.ct.gov/external/super/E-Services/efile/Judicial Branch)

Don't want an E-Services account? Sign up to have notice of case updates sent straight to your email!

Updates will let you know there is activity on a case such as:

- The filing of a document;
- The entry of an order;
- The scheduling of a case on the short calendar; or
- The scheduling of a case event, such as a pretrial, status conference or hearing.

Go to: <https://jud.ct.gov/external/super/E-Services/efile/ExtUser Request emailupdates Quickcard.pdf>

ASK A COURT SERVICE CENTER MANAGER FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Court.ServiceCenter@jud.ct.gov